CHANTICLEER

awakenings

SEPTEMBER 25 AND OCTOBER 2, 2021 - GREEN ROOM, WAR MEMORIAL, SAN FRANCISCO, CA
On behalf of all of us at Chanticleer, I would like to thank you for joining us for the opening celebrations of our 44th season. It has been two years since Chanticleer has been able to perform a concert for our home audiences, and we are looking forward to singing for you in person!

Thank you for choosing to join us in this celebration, and for supporting Chanticleer during the uncertain months of the pandemic. We have been overwhelmed and humbled by the outpouring of support from our global Chanticleer family over the last year. Many of you made extraordinary gestures of generosity to ensure Chanticleer’s survival, and we are more grateful than words can express.

For 44 years, Chanticleer has continuously traveled the world to sing for thousands of fans, students, and new audiences. The ensemble rehearses daily, and each member is devoted to this rare full-time opportunity to sing choral music at the highest possible level. This daily devotion to the art of ensemble singing makes the “Chanticleer sound” possible, and forms a bond between its members that is strong and life-long. The last year has challenged us as an organization and as a family, but the resilience and creativity of the ensemble has been a marvel to behold. They have worked tirelessly to create virtual concerts, online educational activities, and safe ways to rehearse. The results have been magical, and we are delighted that so many of you have tuned in for these virtual events.

Experiencing the outpouring of love for Chanticleer from fans around the world has been the silver lining of the last year. We look forward to sharing everything that we have created and learned during our absence from live concerts. Chanticleer is returning to the stage with more resolve and artistic depth than ever before. Thank you for being a part of our family and supporting the brilliant members of Chanticleer.

Most sincerely,

Lauda Jerusalem, from Vespro della Beata Vergine – Claudio Monteverdi

Lauda Jerusalem, Dominum; Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem: lauda Deum tuum, Sion.
Quoniam confortavit seras portarum tuarum; For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates: benedixit filiis tuis in te. and hath blessed thy children within thee.
Qui posuit fines tuos pacem, He maketh peace in thy borders: et adipe frumenti satiat te. and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.
Qui emittit eloquium suum terræ; He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: velociter currit sermo ejus. and his word runneth very swiftly.
Qui dat nivem sicut lanam; He giveth snow like wool: nebulam sicut cinerem spargit. and scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.
Qui emittit eloquium terræ: He casteth forth his ice like morsels: ante faciem frigoris ejus quis sustinebit? who is able to abide his frost?
Emittet verbum suum, et liquefaciet ea; He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: flabit spiritus ejus, et fluent aquæ. he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.
Qui annuntiat verbum suum Jacob, He sheweth his word unto Jacob: justitias et judicia sua Israel. his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.
Non fecit taliter omni nationi, He hath not dealt so with any nation: et judicia sua non manifestavit eis. neither have the heathen knowledge of his laws.
Gloria Patri et Filio et Spiritui Sancto. Glory be to the Father, to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
Sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper et in sæcula sæculorum, Amen.

Psalm 147

Standomi un giorno – Orlande de Lassus

IV. Chiara fontana in quel medesmo bosco sorgea d’un sasso, e acque fresche e dolci spargea, soavemente mormorando; al bel seggio, riposto, ombroso e fosco, né pastori appressavan né bifolci, ma ninfe e muse a quel tenor cantando:
ivi m’assisi; e quando piú dolcezza prendea di tal concento e di tal vista, aprir vidi uno speco, e portarsene seco la fonte e’l loco: ond’ anchor doglia sento, e sol de la memoria mi sgomento.

V. Una strania fenice, ambe due l’ale di porpora vestita, e’l capo d’oro, vedendo per la selva altera e sola, In that same grove a crystal fountain sprang from beneath a stone, and sprinkled sweet fresh water, murmuring gently: no shepherd or flocks ever approached that lovely place, secret, shadowy and dark, but nymphs and Muses singing to its tones: there I sat: and while I absorbed the sweetness of that harmony, and of the sight, I saw a cave yawn wide, and carry with it the fountain and its site: so I feel the grief, and the memory alone dismays me.

In that same grove a crystal fountain sprang from beneath a stone, and sprinkled sweet fresh water, murmuring gently: no shepherd or flocks ever approached that lovely place, secret, shadowy and dark, but nymphs and Muses singing to its tones: there I sat: and while I absorbed the sweetness of that harmony, and of the sight, I saw a cave yawn wide, and carry with it the fountain and its site: so I feel the grief, and the memory alone dismays me.

I saw a strange phoenix, both its wings clothed in crimson, and its head with gold, solitary and alone in the wood, veder forma celeste et immortale prima pensai, fin ch'a lo svelto alloro giunse, et al fonte che la terra invola:
ogni cosa al fin vola;
che, mirando le frondi a terra sparse,
e'l troncon rotto, e quel vivo humor secco,
vole in se stessa il becco,
quasi sdegnando, e'n un punto disparse:
onde'l cor di pietate, e d'amor m'ar.se.

VI. Al fin vid’io per entro i fiori e l'erba pensoa ir sì leggiadra e bella donna, che mai no'l penso ch'i' non arda e treme:
humile in sé, ma incontra Amor superba;
et avea indosso sì candida gonna,
sì texta, ch'oro e neve parea insieme;
ma le parti supreme erano avolte d'una nebbia oscura:
punta poi nel tallon d'un picciol angue,
come fior colto langue,
lieta si dipartio, non ché secura.
ahi, null' altro che pianto, al mondo dura!

Canzon, tu puoi ben dire:
"Queste sei visioni al signor mio han fatto un dolce di morir desio."

Le Chant des Oiseaux – Clément Janequin

Réveillez vous, coeurs endormis,
Le dieu d'amour vous sonne.

A ce premier jour de mai
Oiseaux feront merveilles
Pour vous mettre hors d'esmay.
Détoupez vos oreilles.
Et farirariron freleri joli.
Vous serez tous en joie mis
Car la saison est bonne.

Awake, sleepy hearts
the God of Love calls you.

On this first day of May,
the birds will make you marvel,
To lift yourself from dismay
Unclog your ears,
And farirariron freleri prettily.
You will be moved to joy
For the season is fair.
Vous orrez à mon avis
Une douce musique,
Que fera le roy mauvis
Le merle aussi
L’estournel sera parmi,
D’une voix authentique:
   Ti ti pyti pyti
Chou Chou Chouti
Que dis-tu?
Le petit sansonnet de Paris,
Le petit mignon, Sainte tête Dieu!
Guillemette, Colinette,
il est temps d’aller boire!
Qu’est là-bas, passe villain
Sage, courtois, et bien appris.
   Au sermon, ma maîtress,
   Sus, madame,
à la messe Sainte Coquette qui caquette.
   à Saint Trotin voir Saint Robin, montrer le tétin, le doux musequin!
Rire et gaudir c’est mon devis,
   Chacun s’y abandonne.

Rossignol du bois joli,
A qui la voix résonne,
Pour vous mettre hors d’ennui
Votre gorge jargonne.
   Friant friant tr tar tar tu
   Velecy ticun tu tu
   Qui lara ferely fy fy
   Coqui teo siti oty tr
   Turri huit huit teo tar
   Quio quio fouquet
   Quibi quibi fi frr
Fuyez regrets, pleurs et souci,
   Car la saison l’ordonne,

Arrière maître cocu,
Sortez de nos chapitre,
Chacun vous est mal tenu
Car vous n’êtes qu’un traître
   Coucou coucou
Par trahison en chacun nid
Pondez sans qu’on vous sonne.
Réveillez vous coeurs endormis,
Le dieu d’amour vous sonne.

You will hear, at my behest,
A sweet music,
That the royal thrush
And also the blackbird will sing
Together with the starling
In a genuine voice:
   Ti ti pyti pyti
Chou chou chouti
What are you saying?
The little starling of Paris,
The little darling, holy head of God!
Guillemette and Colinette,
it’s time to go drinking!
Who is there, knave?
Wise, courteous, and well-formed.
To the sermon, my lady,
Get up, madam,
To the Mass for St. Clucky, who gossips.
To St. Trotin to see St. Robin
Show off your chest, sweet musician!
To laugh and rejoice is my device,
Let everyone give themselves up to them.

Nightingale of the pretty woods,
Whose voice resounds,
To free yourself from boredom
Your throat jabbers away.
   Friant friant tr tar tar tu
   Velecy ticun tu tu
   Qui lara ferely fy fy
   Coqui teo siti oty tr
   Turri huit huit teo tar
   Quio quio fouquet
   Quibi quibi fi frr
Flee, regrets, tears and worries,
For the season commands it.

Turn around, master cuckoo,
Get out of our company,
Each of us gives you to the owl,
For you are nothing but a traitor.
   Cuckoo, cuckoo
Treacherously in others’ nests,
You lay without being called.
Awake, sleepy hearts,
The god of love is calling you.

Motet for 12 Singers – Carlos Rafael Rivera

The Rewaking – Augusta Read Thomas

Sooner or later
we must come to the end of striving to re-establish the image the image of the rose
but not yet
you say extending the time indefinitely
by your love until a whole spring
rekindle the violet to the very lady’s-slipper
and so by your love the very sun
itself is revived

Text by William Carlos Williams

Après un rêve – Gabriel Fauré

Dans un sommeil que charmait ton image
In a slumber charmed by your image
Je rêvais le bonheur, ardent mirage,
I dreamt of happiness, an ardent mirage,
Tes yeux étaient plus doux, ta voix pure et sonore,
Your eyes were sweeter, your voice pure and sonorous,
Tu rayonnais comme un ciel éclairé par l’aurore;
You were radiant like the clear sky at dawn;

Tu m’appelais et je quittais la terre
You called to me and I left the earth
Pour m’enfuir avec toi vers la lumière,
To fly away with you toward the light,
Les cieux pour nous entr’ouvraient leurs nubes,
For us, the skies parted their clouds,
Splendeurs inconnues, lueurs divines entrevues,
Unknown splendors, glimpses of divine light,

Hélas! Hélas! triste réveil des songes
Alas! Alas! Sad awakening from dreams
Je t’appelle, ô nuit, rends moi tes mensonges,
I call to you, o night, give me back your lies,
Reviens, reviens radieuse,
Return, return in radiance,
Reviens ô nuit mystérieuse!
Return, o mysterious night!

SUNRISE – MICHELLE, arr. Tim Keeler

_Couldn’t ever be my sunrise, sunrise,_
You’re just a setting sun, I’d pray and you would pass me by,
You’re only looking for a good time, a body you could kiss on,
Turn to you and you’ve moved on.

Well there’s something about the way you passed me by
I couldn’t keep up and now I’m stuck.
And I never forget how carefully you counted it:
Seven twenty-five licks to the center of a tootsie pop,
All the times you laughed it made my heart stop
Get the key, unlocked, no pace, no clock,
Who’s there? Knock, knock.

The earth still turns and I believe one day I’ll fall into your gravity.
I just took too long to see beyond this predetermined read.
Empty hallways, calendars months behind,
Beds too warm to leave
But I know like the sun I’ve gotta rise eventually.

_Couldn’t ever be my sunrise..._

It’s sour this time
Many times I rode, many times I’d spin and went so far for you,
It’s familiar and mild,
You stretch me out, I still can’t reach Don’t wanna need your company.

Don’t you know that the earth still turns and I believe one day I’ll fall into your gravity.
I just took too long to see beyond this predetermined read.
Empty hallways, calendars months behind,
Beds too warm to leave
But I know like the sun I’ve gotta rise eventually.

_Couldn’t ever be my sunrise..._
On a Clear Day – Burton Lane, arr. Gene Puerling

On a clear day,
Rise and look around you,
and you’ll see who you are –
On a clear day,
how it will astound you,
that the glow of your being outshines every star –

You feel part of ev’ry mountain, sea and shore,
You can hear from far and near,
a world you’ve never heard before,
And on a clear day,
On that clear day,
You can see forever and ever more.

The GRAMMY® Award-winning vocal ensemble Chanticleer has been hailed as “the world’s reigning male chorus” by The New Yorker, and is known around the world as “an orchestra of voices” for its wide-ranging repertoire and dazzling virtuosity. Founded in San Francisco in 1978 by singer and musicologist Louis Botto, Chanticleer quickly took its place as one of the most prolific recording and touring ensembles in the world, selling over one million recordings and performing thousands of live concerts to audiences around the world.

Chanticleer’s repertoire is rooted in the renaissance and has continued to expand to include a wide range of classical, gospel, jazz, popular music, and a deep commitment to the commissioning of new compositions and arrangements. The ensemble has committed much of its vast recording catalogue to these commissions, garnering GRAMMY® Awards for its recording of Sir John Tavener’s “Lamentations & Praises”, and the ambitious collection of commissioned works entitled “Colors of Love”. Named for the “clear-singing” rooster in Geoffrey Chaucer’s Canterbury Tales, Chanticleer continues to maintain ambitious programming in its hometown of San Francisco, including a large education and outreach program that recently reached over 8,000 people, and an annual concert series that includes its legendary holiday tradition “A Chanticleer Christmas”.

He has since performed as soloist with the International Contemporary Ensemble and was a member of the Choir of St. Mary the Virgin at the famed “Smoky Mary’s” in midtown Manhattan. As a horn player, Adam was a member of the Verbier Festival Orchestra, winner of the concerto competitions at Yale and Stony Brook Universities, and was a top prizewinner at the Coleman, Fischoff and Yellow Springs national chamber music competitions. As a composer his works have been heard around the world for nearly two decades. He was recently composer-in-residence for the New York City based Choral Chameleon directed by Vince Peterson and the Sacramento based Vox Musica directed by Daniel Paulson. He is also an avid singer-songwriter. Adam holds a B.M. from Manhattan School of Music, M.M. from Yale School of Music and additional years of study at the Hartt School, Royal College of Music (London) and Stony Brook University. Adam is overjoyed to be in his sixteenth season with Chanticleer.
TIM KEELER, Music Director, sang as a countertenor in Chanticleer in the 2017-18 season. In Chanticleer’s history he will be the fourth of its six Music Directors to have been a member of the ensemble. Prior to moving to San Francisco, Tim forged a career as an active conductor, singer, and educator. He performed with New York Polyphony, The Clarion Choir, and the Choir of Trinity Wall Street. He also performed frequently as a soloist, appearing regularly in the Bach Vespers series at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in New York City, as well as with TENET, New York’s preeminent early music ensemble. An avid proponent of new and challenging repertoire, Tim remains a core member of Ekmeles, a vocal ensemble based in New York City and dedicated to contemporary, avant-garde, and infrequently-performed vocal repertoire.

While transitioning to his role as music director of Chanticleer, Tim is in the midst of completing his DMA in Choral Conducting at the University of Maryland where he studies with Dr. Edward Maclary. As an educator, Tim directed the Men’s Chorus at the University of Maryland, served as director of choirs at the Special Music School High School in Manhattan, and worked closely with the Young People’s Chorus of New York City as a vocal coach and satellite school conductor. He was also the choral conductor for Juilliard’s new Summer Performing Arts program - a two-week intensive summer course in Geneva, Switzerland.

Tim holds a BA in Music from Princeton University with certificates in Vocal Performance and Computer Science, an MPhil in Music and Science from Cambridge University, and an MM in Choral Conducting from the University of Michigan. While studying with Dr. Jerry Blackstone at the University of Michigan, Tim served as assistant conductor of the Grammy award-winning UMS Choral Union, preparing the choir for performances with Leonard Slatkin and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. His dissertation at Cambridge explored statistical methods used in natural language processing and unsupervised machine learning as applied to musical phrase detection and segmentation.

PHILIP WILDER, President and General Director, returns to Chanticleer with a career spanning 30 years as an artistic programmer, educator, fundraiser, musician, promoter, and recording and film producer. A graduate of the Interlochen Arts Academy, the Eastman School of Music and the DeVos Institute for Arts Management, Mr. Wilder began his professional career as a countertenor in Chanticleer in 1990. He also served as Chanticleer’s Assistant Music Director and Founding Director of Education.

After leaving Chanticleer in 2003, Wilder served as Associate Director of the capital campaign for the Harman Center for the Arts in Washington, D.C., and was awarded a fellowship at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts’ DeVos Institute for Arts Management. In 2005, Wilder joined 21C Media Group, the New York-based independent public relations, marketing, and consulting firm specializing in classical music and the performing arts.

During his tenure at 21C Media Group, Mr. Wilder developed an impressive roster of clients, including Grammy Award-winners Yefim Bronfman, Susan Graham, and Joyce DiDonato; Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Steven Stucky; and MacArthur “genius” grant recipient Jeremy Denk. He also advised organizations, including the Dallas Opera, the Grand Teton Music Festival and Google’s YouTube Symphony Orchestra. In 2009, founder Albert Imperato named Wilder vice president of 21C Media Group.

Mr. Wilder recently served as executive director of the New Century Chamber Orchestra (NCCO), leading the organization’s strategic planning and day-to-day business. Wilder also worked closely with NCCO's music directors Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg and Daniel Hope to guide the orchestra's ambitious artistic programming, including its acclaimed Featured Composer Program, which commissioned major string orchestra works from some of today's most prominent composers, including Derek Bermel, William Bolcom, Philip Glass, and Jennifer Higdon.

Wilder is a passionate advocate for classical music and music education, and has teamed up with documentary filmmaker Owsley Brown III on film projects that share stories of the profound impact of music on people and their communities. He served as series producer of the PBS web series Music Makes a City Now, and music consultant for the documentary film Serenade for Haiti, which received its world premiere at HBO’s Doc NYC Festival in November of 2016.

Rumors

Fact and fiction are closer than we think. Truths for some are lies to another. The consequences of such misinterpretation range from comical to dire. Shakespeare's characters, for instance, often find themselves in amusing situations due to a simple misunderstanding. On the other hand, entire countries have been led to war based on little more than hearsay. Join Chanticleer for an evening of intrigue and mystery as we try to separate fact from fiction. Repertoire includes works by Josquin, Thomas Tallis, Ralph Vaughan Williams, George Walker, and new arrangements of music by Fleetwood Mac.

“No mean reward” Chanticleer and the Golden Fleece

On January 10th, 1430, Duke Philip the Good of Burgundy founded the chivalric confraternity known as the Order of the Golden Fleece. Dedicated to “the exaltation of the faith and the Holy Church,” “the honor of St. Andrew,” and “the practice of virtues and good habits,” the Order and its members supported the creation of some of Europe's most exquisite polyphony in the late 1400s. Repertoire includes music by Guillaume Du Fay, Johannes Ockeghem, Antoine Busnois, and Cristóbal Morales.
