Please refer to Change of Tenancy Process (available in Building and Planning Division offices) if you have any questions.

A development permit is a required prior approval for issuance of a building permit under the regulations of the Uniform Construction Code. No structure or part thereof can be erected, raised, moved, extended, enlarged, altered or demolished, and no land can be altered, filled or used, and no lot or lots can be occupied, used, raised in grade six inches (6"), cleared, fenced, or altered or improved in any way in whole or in part for any purpose unless and until the Zoning Officer issues a development permit. A development permit is required for the use of any land, even if there is no structure. The need for the issuance of a building permit or Certificate of Occupancy (CO) requires the filing for a development permit. Surveys must be no older than 10 years.
