

NEW WSL Diversity Book Club

In response to strong interest from a number of parents in our community, the PCA is sponsoring a new monthly book club at WSL!

WHAT

Under the larger umbrella of “diversity,” our focus for this first year will be on racial identity, institutionalized inequity, and strategies for building a community that is both more inclusive and celebratory of racial and ethnic differences.

Our first book will be Waking Up White, by Debby Irving (from Winchester). Other possible titles include Between the World and Me, by Ta-Nehisi Coates, and A Different Mirror: A History of Multicultural America, by Ronald Takaki. Shorter articles and TED talks may be selected as well.

WHEN

One Friday morning per month, 8:15–9:45 AM, on the following dates in 2016–17:

- October 21
- November 18
- December 9
- January 20
- February 10
- March 3
- April 7
- May 12

WHERE

The library at the Waldorf School of Lexington
