

Using the starting material shown for each transformation, propose a plausible retro and forward synthesis. You may use any number of steps and set of reaction conditions you wish.

