

Group Name:

Areas for Improvement	Criteria	Areas of Strength
	Problem Statement/Research Question The statement of the problem is clear, valid, and justifiable. The problem is clearly supported by research.
	Design Process The design process was clearly iterative and the team built on previous solutions and input from the experts and mentors.
	Viability The proposed solution positively impacts the patient experience and provides a viable and innovative solution.
	Professionalism and Presentation The team was professional, organized and engaging throughout the presentation. It was clear the team collaborated effectively throughout the design process.
	Response to Judges' Questions The team clearly articulated responses to the judges questions at the end of the presentations and possessed a true engineering mindset when presented with constructive criticism.	