

Small Grants for Community Development

Each year, our foundation makes donations (roughly $2000) to LOCAL non-profit organizations involved in activities that contribute to the quality of life in our neighborhood. Interested organizations should submit a short, succinct grant application describing their activities and the purpose of their request. The applications will be evaluated by the philanthropy committee and voted on by the membership. Applicant must be a 501 (c)3 organization.

Applications are due October 3, 2016.
