   E. Capital Campaign – A feasibility study to be conducted with 100 parishioners in English and Spanish. Looking for study to begin the second week of October.

III. Old Business:
   A. Pastoral Council Website – New info on website of what the Pastoral Council does including info on members such as photos, mass times and ministries served. Also included will be council minutes and an email address where we can be contacted with any questions or concerns we can bring to the Council.

B. Feast Day – A great success and well-planned celebration with 340 adult tickets sold and 47 kids.

C. Bulletin Cover Feature – Write up feature on Council and what we do with a photo to appear in Church bulletin on Oct. 20-21. Deadline to get in to Evelyn McNair is Oct. 10 at noon. Lead on this task is Joe, Bruni and Tyler.

IV. New Business:

A. Pastoral Council Subcommittees – discussed on whether sub-committees should be formed based on Austin Diocese Policy on development of being more effect in creating sub-committees. The council elected at this time to invite leadership staff to separate meetings going forward to speak on the ministry and to see how we can assist spreading the word for any assistance or participation in place of creating sub-committees at this time.

V. Perspectives from the Pews:

A. Concerns with having Breakfast with Santa simultaneous with the Cougar Chase.
B. Concerns about ongoing formation of Eucharistic Ministers. An EM was observed not wiping the chalice. This will be addressed during EM formation.
C. Feast Day notes - some families would have preferred children were not separated from the adults, but some families loved that.
D. Suggestion - move the Sacred Heart of Jesus statue to another location.
E. Suggestion - have ECDC (7:45 am) and school (7:15 am) opening at the same time.

VI. Closing prayer – Fr. James Misko

Meeting adjourned at 8:31 pm.

The next meeting will be on September 25, 2018 at 6:00 pm in the Church Office Conference room.
