Workshop

A Comprehensive Approach to Missions

How the workshop will benefit the church:

Provides the church a comprehensive approach to missions.
Unifies the church around the pastor's missions vision.
Allows every church member to answer their personal Great Commission call.
Creates a simple, but effective, missions plan that insures greater ministry impact.

What the workshop is designed to do:

Designed to bless the local church spiritually, numerically, and financially.
Designed to work in any size church.
Designed to help churches with existing missions programs, or no missions program at all.
Designed to adapt to any church structure or government.
Designed to not burden the pastor with more work.
