

Filming at Startup Edmonton | 2017

---

We strive to be a welcoming place for film, especially if you're helping share the stories of our founders, community leaders and companies.

Press Filming

- No-fee filming applies to coverage of Startup Edmonton and member companies, including community meetups, programming and special events.
- To arrange no-fee filming for press:
  - Please email: Stephanie@startupidmonton.com and include the following:
  - Details of your program and contact details
  - Requested film dates & times
  - Purpose and focus of your story
- Note: Startup Edmonton members are required to identify when news crews are planning to be in the space. Please slack Stephanie a quick message at your earliest convenience.

Commercial Filming & Photography

- Commercial filming requests must be related to Startup Edmonton members, startup communities, co-working or product development.
- Filming at Startup Edmonton for commercial use requires written permission no later than 48 hours prior to the requested film date.
- To request consideration for commercial filming:
  - Email: Stephanie@startupidmonton.com and include the following:
  - Production Company Title, Producer and On-Site Contact (full contact information)
  - Filming request specifics (dates, times, size of crew/cast)
  - Abstract - short description of the work, including plans for distribution and timelines for completion.
  - Proof of liability insurance
- Upon approval to film, both parties will be required to sign a filming agreement outlining fees, credits, and space use rules and regulations.
- Note: Startup Edmonton members are required to identify when they are commercial filming in the space. Please slack Stephanie a quick message at your earliest convenience for approval.