How can action to recognise and protect the intrinsic value of the ocean in law be accelerated?

Prime Minister of Cape Verde Ulisses Correia e Silva, former President of the Republic of Seychelles Danny Faure, Race Chairman of The Ocean Race Richard Brisius, Head of IUCN's Marine and Polar team Minna Epps and Callie Veelenturf from the Earth Law Centre will address this question at the The Ocean Race side event “Towards a Universal Declaration of Ocean Rights”.

Towards a Universal Declaration of Ocean Rights

When: Thursday 30 June 2022 (16:00-17:15 pm)
Where: Side event room 2 of the Altice Arena

Join The Ocean Race side event at the UN Ocean Conference in Lisbon!

How can action to recognise and protect the intrinsic value of the ocean in law be accelerated?

Prime Minister of Cape Verde Ulisses Correia de Silva, former President of the Republic of Seychelles Danny Faure, Race Chairman of The Ocean Race Richard Brisius, Head of IUCN’s Marine and Polar team Minna Epps and Callie Veelenturf from the Earth Law Centre will address this question at the The Ocean Race side event “Towards a Universal Declaration of Ocean Rights”.

Speakers:

- H.E. Ulisses Correia de Silva
  Prime Minister of Cabo Verde

- H.E. Danny Faure
  Former President of the Republic of Seychelles

- Callie Veelenturf
  Marine conservation biologist and National Geographic Explorer

- Richard Brisius
  Race Chairman, The Ocean Race

- Minna Epps
  Head of Marine and Polar Team

Moderated by Johan Strid, Director, Ocean Policy and The Ocean Race Summits