

(Marketing) Communication Manager at Bee Collective: Swarm Solutions

*Do you have a passion for marketing and have always wanted to join a Social Enterprise?
Become Bee Collective's Communication Manager!*

At Bee Collective, we believe that we can work on parts of complex Sustainable Development Goals by forming temporary Pop Up Companies. Instead of working independently, we work with a Swarm of people who all contribute with various fields of expertise. In this way, we manage to work in a collective and make use of all the talent in the world.

Together with other initiatives such as PartUp, Bee Collective is one of the pioneers of this new way of working and expands quickly alongside our global network. We are currently looking for a (Marketing) Communication Manager who will have the main responsibility to convey our message to the world, not limited by its borders.

Become part of this new movement and be responsible for:

- Developing (marketing) communication strategies to form objectives focused on increasing brand awareness for Bee Collective and the events we organise
- Using analytical insights to create actionable strategies to achieve these objectives
- Handle our social media accounts and facilitate community engagement
- Collaborates with designers, copywriters and developers to execute projects and develop marketing materials
- Closely work together with the rest of the founding team to further develop the business and detect growth opportunities

We're looking for someone with the following experience and attributes:

- Min. of 3-years experience in the field of marketing/communications
- Strong communication, research, project management and people skills
- A need to contribute to building a better world through non-traditional work methods
- An interest in social causes

As Communication Manager you will work together with the rest of the founding team and an assisting marketing intern.

Some additional facts about Bee Collective

- We don't believe in organisational hierarchy and work inspired by methodologies like Holacracy (learn more)
- Our Bee Collective hives are already present in many world parts, including Africa and Asia
- We strongly believe in the efficient work methods of actual Bee's and constantly work to implement this in our organisation
- Our partners are founders of the most successful platforms and organizations such as Impact Hub, Seats2Meet, Design Thinkers Academy, Accenture Innovation Awards, PartUp, Wem
