

Interior Design Masters or PhD student for Educational Facility Research

Version: 05-06-2022

Overview
Summary Expectations	An Interior Design Masters or PhD student capable of providing mixed methods research services as well as operational needs such as communications, graphic design, data management, and so forth. An individual with emerging leadership qualities who possesses particular experience needed for serving as a research team member on a project concerned with school design and social and emotional learning. This includes gathering, organizing data, and processing data relative to the stated research objective and/or hypothesis. Opportunities for manuscript authorship and other avenues of disseminating research findings will be provided. A self-starter who has confidence to move forward on their own under tutelage of their Principal Investigator. Works to align with and support CADRE's mission and purpose to contribute new knowledge to influence building and community design in the context of student housing.
Duration	June 2022 – December 2022 with opportunity for renewal (10-20 hours per week)
Discipline(s)	Preference for Research, Architecture, Design, Education, Cognitive Sciences, Urban Planning, Technology, Communication (including Infographics skills) and Other as required in the CADRE job opportunity solicitation.
Reports To	Principal Investigator (PI), Executive Director (ED), or CADRE Project Manager (PM)
Responsibilities
Study / Project	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Support the needs of the Principal Investigator and take direction from this Team Leader.</li> <li>• Provide research support including literature searches, data gathering, organization and documentation, survey data analysis, qualitative data analysis, document, and illustrate findings as required.</li> <li>• Work on internal CADRE initiatives to document new tools, graphically illustrate reports, contribute to the CADRE website components and so forth.</li> </ul>

Cultural	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Models and holds others accountable to the firm’s cultural values, including a commitment to quality, innovation, learning and growth.</li><li>• Fosters and maintains a collaborative professional working relationship with the project team, including promoting communication and creating approachability.</li><li>• Actively promotes and incorporates CADRE’s pursuit of “design excellence”.</li></ul>
Financial	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Collaborates in managing project to satisfy requirements from budget and schedule perspective while delivering a quality work product.</li></ul>
Qualifications
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Accredited professional degree – preference given to holders of Masters degrees in one or more of the following areas: architecture, interior design, anthropology, psychology, social services, communication, technology, healthcare, education, business or design-related field.</li><li>• Experience with mixed methods research in education settings.</li><li>• Typically, 1-2 years of experience in the field of degree earned or with a research-focused organization</li><li>• Proficiency in MS Office Suite preferred</li><li>• Strong organizational skills and the ability to work on multiple projects at the same time</li><li>• Strong quantitative and qualitative</li><li>• Ability to communicate in a clear, concise and professional manner both verbally and in writing</li><li>• Ability to problem solve and apply innovative solutions</li><li>• Ability to collaborate and encourage collaboration in a team environment</li><li>• Ability to effectively meet deadlines at expected quality</li></ul>

Limited travel may be required.

To apply submit your resume to: admin@cadresearch.org