NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Brothers,

The 2014/15 academic year is in full swing, and I am happy to report that Acacia is off to a great start, continuing our momentum from Conclave and Playing in Rhythm. Many of our chapters are reporting fall pledge classes larger than their historical averages, and our members have been active in the areas of Human Service and campus leadership. As we reach the midway point of the semester, all signs are positive. Look for more detailed updates in this fall's TRIAD magazine.

In this issue of The Crest, we offer a few different ways for alumni to support Acacia in its efforts this year. We ask that you please begin by forwarding this email to other brothers with whom you remain in regular contact, or reply to this email with a contact list of brothers from your chapter / era. Next, we offer a new and easy way to support Acacia financially, and an opportunity to enjoy the fruits of brotherhood with an Acacia alumni weekend in January in Las Vegas. And finally, be sure to let us know of your current mailing address if you've recently moved so we can reach you with The TRIAD later this fall. With your support, this will be a banner year for Acacia.

Fraternally,

Patrick McGovern
Executive Director

FORWARD THIS EMAIL TO REACH MORE BROTHERS

Did you know that Acacia’s membership stands at nearly 35,000 living members? While it is our desire to reach every brother with news from Acacia, our addressable audience is less than our full membership. This Crest eNewsletter, for instance, will reach approximately 8,500 email inboxes. It is our goal to increase that number by at least 20% by the spring semester.

Will you help us by forwarding this email to all chapter brothers in your address book?

If you had this email forwarded to you by a brother, please take 10 seconds to email communications@acacia.org with your full name to be added to our email list. We typically send The Crest six times per year, plus a few special editions. Many chapters also use contact lists from the International office to send newsletters, and we’d love for your chapter to be able to reach you, as well.

Additionally, you may send us a full contact list of brothers with whom you remain in contact to help us reach our 20% goal – communications@acacia.org. Thank you for your efforts!

Purdue University’s Krannert School of Management honored Past Acacia National President John F. Hoffner, Purdue ‘66, with its Distinguished Alumni Award during homecoming weekend on September 26, 2014.

Brother Hoffner’s career in financial management spanned more than three decades, culminating with his service as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Jack in the Box Inc. before his retirement in 2005. Brother Hoffner serves on the Board of Directors of St. Mary’s Good Samaritan Hospital, a non-profit hospital organization, and previously served on the Board of Directors of Popeyes Restaurants Inc., Purdue University’s Krannert Management School, and the Boards of Directors of Junior Achievement of Los Angeles and San Diego.

Brother Hoffner’s Acacia career is just as distinguished, with service including terms as National President, National 1st Vice President, and as a Director of the Acacia Fraternity Foundation. Hoffner is a stalwart donor to the Foundation and has served the greater interfraternity community as a Director of the North American Interfraternity Conference.
Congratulations to Brother Hoffner on his accomplishments!
