CONCLAVE IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER!

Will you be among over 100 Acacians convening in Nashville next month for Conclave? We’d love to have you join us! Come to the Music City to enjoy four days of brotherhood while we conduct the official business of the fraternity.

Festivities begin on July 30th at 3:45 p.m. and culminate with the Conclave Final Banquet & Awards Ceremony on August 2nd. This year’s Conclave will be held at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Downtown Nashville, with plenty of attractions to explore and nightlife within walking distance. Come for the entire event, or just join us for the weekend.

Conclave registration is $150 per person and includes lunch at the William A. Utic Acacia Fraternity Foundation Scholarship Luncheon, a formal dinner at the Conclave Final Banquet, and numerous educational and entertainment activities.
You may also register for just the Luncheon or Banquet.

All Acacians are welcome to attend this event, from the youngest pledge to the most well-traveled alumnus. While our schedule will feature full days and a variety of programming, there will also be time to get out and explore the city.

Hundreds of up-and-coming bands play virtually every night in local establishments and city parks, with nightlife centers around the neon lit strip of Broadway. Are you a country music lover? The Country Music Hall of Fame might be on your must-see list. The city is about more than music, too. Nashville is home to a great array of museums and historical sites, including the First Center of the Visual Arts and the Tennessee State Museum — next to the Conclave hotel — which holds one of the largest civil war exhibits in the country.

Additionally, to a greater extent than non-members, fraternity and sorority members tended to strongly benefit from emotional support and experiential and deep learning, and they are more likely to be thriving later in life.
