Greetings!

Brothers arrived in St. Louis on August 1, 2012 for four days of business and brotherhood at Acacia Fraternity’s 57th Biennial Conclave and Leadership Academy -- conducting the business of the fraternity, learning new skills to benefit our members and chapters, and strengthening the ties of friendship.

Official Business

Membership Growth
The preceding biennium marked strong growth, with active membership of 1000+ men equaling our highest numbers in over a decade.

Financial Health
The financial health of the fraternity improved greatly in the last biennium. Our accounts receivable diminished greatly, with many chapters working hard to address the debt saddled upon them by their predecessors.

Membership Education
Cornerstones, the Membership Development Program of Acacia Fraternity, still a relatively young program at six years, continues to evolve and have a greater impact on our active members, chapters, and alumni. Learn more at AcaciaCornerstones.org
Communications
An area that the fraternity looks to improve over the next biennium is communications. The staff has added a full-time Director of Communications to the staff -- Michael Pastko, Purdue '04 -- to help lead this effort.

Elections
Acacia welcomes new International First Vice President Scott H. Meyer, St. Cloud State '89, to the Council and congratulates Jeremy N. Davis, Iowa State '00, on his re-election as International Second Vice President. Newly elected as Undergraduate Counselors are George "Chip" A. Ray, Penn State '10, and Joel A. Zeni, Oregon State '10.

Featured Programs and Entertainment
Conclave attendees enjoyed numerous featured programs and events this year:

Brother Doug G. MacCraw, Nebraska '86 performed his famed comedy hypnosis show and had Acacians laughing non-stop and set the stage for a great week.

In supporting our motto of Human Service, dozens of Acacians donated blood to support the Mississippi Valley Regional Blood Center on Friday afternoon. Our donations to the blood center will help almost 100 people in need of blood this year.
"How Do You Want to be Remembered?" was the question posed by Friday’s speaker, Kent Stock.

Friday evening, dozens of Acacians braved the intense heat and humidity at Busch Stadium to watch the St. Louis Cardinals take on division rival Milwaukee Brewers, while a second group of brothers chose to visit the City Museum. We also welcomed alumni to join us for the George F. Patterson Society alumni reception.

On Saturday, featured speaker Andrew McCrea presented, "Losing to Win: The Leadership Paradox" as part of the speaking program sponsored by the International Council of Acacia Fraternity.

Banquets, Scholarships, and Awards

On Friday, August 3, 2012, the entire delegation enjoyed the William A. Utic Acacia Fraternity Foundation Scholarship Banquet, where numerous scholarships were awarded to deserving undergraduate members. The chapter Spirit of Excellence award winners were also announced at the banquet.
