

Staff and volunteers are responsible for maintaining a professional role with children, which means establishing and maintaining clear boundaries that serve to protect everyone from misunderstandings or a violation of the relationship.

This Code of Conduct sets out the behaviour with OurChurch expects from all people associated with or representing it.

PURPOSE

Primarily, this code will help to protect children, young people and vulnerable adults from abuse and inappropriate behaviour from adults / people in leadership. It will also help staff and volunteers understand and maintain the standard of behaviour expected of them.

Secondly, this will also work to reduce the possibility of allegations of abuse being made against leaders and people in authority and provide possible victims a pathway for voicing their concerns.

And thirdly, this will also work to reduce the possibility of allegations of abuse being made against our organisation.

UPHOLDING THIS CODE OF CONDUCT

All members of staff and volunteers are expected to report any breaches of this code to the Senior Pastor or Safety Management Officer (Pastor Kevin Thomas or Cameron Markham) under the child protection policies and safeguarding procedures put in place by OurChurch.

Staff and volunteers who breach this code of conduct will be subject to the OurChurch's disciplinary procedures.

Any breach of the code involving external workers/volunteers may result in them being asked to leave OurChurch and any associated programs/events/ministries.

Serious breaches may also result in a report being made to authorities as the police, the local statutory child protection authorities.

OurChurch condemns all forms of child abuse, discrimination and sexual exploitation, and is committed to creating and maintaining an environment which promotes safety and inclusiveness for children. Child abuse occurs when adults or other children hurt children or young people under the age of 18, either physically, emotionally, sexually, through neglect or in some other way.

OurChurch is committed to and will provide a safe environment for people living with a disability, people with a cultural and/or linguistically diverse background and will consult with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people about supporting their specific needs..
