II. GENERAL CRITERIA FOR SELECTING VENDORS

1. Commitment to promoting Connecticut agriculture and farm viability; for food producers, this means sourcing ingredients locally whenever possible
2. Track record and length of time at market
3. Quality of product
4. Diversity of product: for new applicants, the product must bring variety to the market
5. Commitment to creating an appealing display
6. Commitment to the markets’ spirit of trust and collaboration
III. MARKET RULES AND PROCEDURES

2. Producers only: all products sold must be produced by the vendor.
3. Value-added agricultural products: the main ingredients should be produced by the vendor and the product should be processed by the vendor whenever possible.
4. Baked goods and preserves: ingredients should be Connecticut grown whenever possible. Producer must mix, bake, or prepare the goods.
5. Fish and seafood: should be caught in Connecticut waters or sourced from a fishery with sustainable practices.
6. Meats and dairy: all products must come from your own herd. Grazing animals must have regular access to pasture and freedom to move around. Hormones may not be fed to animals.
7. Liability insurance is required for food vendors and farmers. This document must be kept current and present.
8. All approved vendors agree to participate in and adhere to the WEFM currency system. Vendors must accept market currency for services when appropriate and know the rules for what they can and cannot accept. Training will be provided.
9. Acceptance of SNAP/EBT benefits is required of all eligible vendors selling meat, dairy, eggs, fruits, vegetables, baked goods, seeds, seedlings and edible plants. NO hot, prepared food can be purchased with SNAP. If you are unsure of how SNAP rules apply to you, please ask.
10. Smoking, illegal drug use, and alcohol consumption by vendors is prohibited on market grounds.
11. Your licensure with the City of Hartford Health Department must be current, and ready to present to any Health Department representatives that attend the market.
12. The market manager has the right to decline and reject ANY application regardless of tenure with the market.

To maintain the integrity of the market, please note that violation of any of these guidelines may result in suspension or expulsion from the market.
IV. VENDOR FEE STRUCTURE

Vendor fees are designed to offset costs for liability insurance, themed-market events, market programming, market equipment, public area obstructions, parks and facility permits, and advertising.

Vendors must be officially accepted into the market via email/phone, before submitting payment.

There are 22 Tuesday markets this season (June - October).

What type of vendor are you?

1. A regular vendor: regular vendors are defined as vendors who plan on attending the West End Farmers’ Market for the duration of the season.
2. A guest vendor: guest vendors are defined as vendors who may attend markets when space is available. Guest vendor spots are not guaranteed and are assigned on a case-by-case basis, depending on space and approval by the Farmers' Market Committee.
3. Once a month, five-market vendor: Dates will be selected in advance for advertising purposes. Rain dates are TBD.
4. Local non-profit / business: Informational; no sales involved.

How much will it be for you?

All vendors must pay in full, in advance.

1. Upon acceptance into the market, a check can be made out to the West End Farmers' Market. The check must arrive before their first market of attendance. Email: manager@wefm.org, to make arrangements.

2. Upon acceptance into the market, payment can be made via PayPal. Email: manager@wefm.org, to make arrangements.

3. As an approved guest vendor, the cash fee must be presented before the market begins.
V. Payout System

Our Farmers’ Market uses a scrip/paper dollar system in exchange for EBT/SNAP, Double Value EBT/SNAP, Credit, and Debit purchases. The scrip is collected and counted at the end of each market of the month.

The total Double Value EBT/SNAP, EBT/SNAP, Credit, and Debit is reimbursed to you on the first Tuesday of the month, via check, for the prior month.

Any rule violations and conflicts arising in the course of the season will be addressed by the Market Master.
