In response to these extraordinary times, Network for New Music welcomes you to our 2020-21 season: Extraordinary Measures!

Network’s Fall – Winter featured works will be performed by members of the Network Ensemble and include:

- a newly commissioned work by Amanda Harberg composed especially for bass clarinetist, Paul R. Demers
- a premiere of For Spangled Hearts for viola and cello by Karen Walwyn; performed by Burchard Tang and Priscilla Lee
- Fantasias for two violins by Gregory Walker; performed by Hirono Oka and Julia Li
- a magnificent marimba piece – Time Well Spent by Caleb Burhans; performed by Phillip O’Banion
- and a special tribute to award-winning composer Richard Wernick; featuring Tom Kraines and Charles Abramovic.

Each of these four events will be pre-rendered for home viewing commencing in October, at 7:30 PM on select Saturday evenings. Ticketing and viewing instructions will be coming soon to our website and announced via email.

February 13 & 14 join us online for LOVE STORIES: a special Valentine’s family-friendly concert event of original sound-art and spoken-word performances featuring 5 composers and created in collaboration with the Germantown Community, facilitated by First Person Arts, and broadcast by G-town Radio 92.9.

Finally, Network hopes to safely return to the stage for two LIVE collaborative events on:

- April 18, 2021 for a program featuring the music of four distinguished American Composers with disabilities
