

It's Conference Prepping Time!

From the SENY Delegate- Panel 69

On February 14, I received the final agenda for the 70th General Service Conference. There are 97 items across the 13 General Service Conference Committees. The confidential background material was 1068 pages long.

The agenda items fall into three general categories: Review, Discuss, and Consider. "Review" often deals with advisory actions from previous General Service Conferences. "Discuss" falls closer to brainstorming within that particular Conference Committee. "Consider" generally asks that Committee to decide if an item will be sent for consideration by the General Service Conference as a whole. However, there is no strict definition or protocol, and nothing would prevent considering a "Review" item or reviewing a "Discuss" item. That being said, "considerations" usually should be at the level of policy for AA as a whole.

While I thought quite a few items would be of interest to AA members in SENY, the items that I have placed on this year's Delegate's Questionnaire are:

- Item 6 K- Consider if proposed agenda items for plain language, simplified language, accessible translations and large print versions of the book, Alcoholics Anonymous, as well as workbooks to help study the program of Alcoholics Anonymous, can be addressed with a common solution.
- Item 6 O- Consider updating the pamphlet "A.A. for the Black and African-American Alcoholic".
- Item 4 A 3- Review the pamphlet "Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix". Consider draft language related to the "virtual basket".
- Item 13 A- Discuss methods of closing the Big Meetings at the International Convention.
- Item 8 I- Discuss a request "to create a new form of communication" to address anonymity on social media.
- Item 10 B- Consider request to develop a Bridging the Gap Workbook.
- Item 13 C- Discuss ways to encourage interest in Regional Forums and attract first time attendees.

Three of these items come from the two Conference Committees I serve on (Treatment and Accessibilities, and International Conventions/Regional Forums).

Final authority and ultimate responsibility for all of AA World Service should reside with the Groups. That's why I really hope that we have active participation and a robust response to the Delegate's Questionnaire. I want to go the General Service Conference as prepared as I can be!

In love, with service, (and in love with service),

Jane E.

An Aspect of Service - Participation

Hello, Friends in Service! I wrapped up last month's article with the following thought: "Participation is essential in the AA service process, and it shows a special kind of gratitude: the kind of gratitude which helps to carry the message to the next drunk, and the next generation". Although I wasn't thinking about this month's article at the time, apparently I still had more to say.

I once heard a speaker say something like "you've given me a chance to participate in my own recovery". When I chose to start participating, I moved out of the bleachers and onto the field of play; I started taking responsibility for my own actions. That was certainly true in my recovery: when I stopped talking the talk and started walking the walk I went from being a dry drunk to someone who (usually) behaves in a sober, adult manner.

I believe with all my heart that the spirit of participation applies equally to service in A.A. When we take our Delegate's Questionnaire back to our groups, we have the chance to enroll them in the vision of A.A.'s future. When we step up to the microphone and share that vision at the Pre-Conference Assembly, we collectively say that our groups give a damn. And at the Post-Conference Assembly when the Delegate reports back to us, we know for certain that our group's voice was heard (even if the result was not what we hoped it would be).

In a world where many millions of people don't even have the right to say what's on their minds, members and groups of Alcoholics Anonymous can inform the General Service Conference of their thoughts, and perhaps their dreams, of what A.A. can and will be.

The Seventh Step Prayer talks about removing "every single defect of character which stands in the way of my usefulness to you and my fellows". In my opinion, our usefulness, whatever form it may take, is brought to life by our participation.

What do you say – shall we trudge the Service Road together?

In Love and Service,

Tom B., Alternate Delegate

Area 49, Panel 69

"Our Big Book for Service" Plus Step Three, Tradition Three, & Concept III

Step Three - Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood him.

Tradition Three - Our membership ought to include all who suffer from alcoholism. Hence we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought AA membership ever depend upon money or conformity. Any two or three alcoholics gathered together may call themselves an AA group, provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation.

Concept III - As a traditional means of creating and maintaining a clearly defined working relationship between the groups, the Conference, the AA General Service Board and its several Service corporations, staffs, committees and executives, and of thus insuring their effective leadership; it is here suggested that we endow each of these elements of AA World Services with a traditional "Right of Decision."

Our Big Book for Service - The AA Service Manual

When I was barely over two years sober, I stayed for a business meeting at one of the meetings that my sponsor attended and I was tricked into becoming that group's GSR. I say tricked, but looking back it was the start of a wonderful life in Service that I did not know was available. It was necessary to start learning the Twelve Traditions at the county meetings. They talked sparingly about an AA Service Manual.

Over the years I have experienced the incredible information and historical wisdom that is between the pages of that manual. On the opening page of the manual it says: Concerning any given Service, we therefore pose but one question: Is this Service needed? If it is, then maintain it we must, or fail in our mission to those who need and seek AA.

AA has been fortunate enough to have many visionaries that have been able to see how important certain things and events would be to our survival. The piece regarding "Why we need a Conference" is one of them. The Chairperson of the Board of Trustees at that time, and one of the architects of the General Service Conference, answered that in the opening talk of the 1954 meeting.

If you read that it will be hard for anyone to not deeply feel how, and why, the conference is needed. The manual goes on to introduce us to Service and its "upside down" organization. (AA Service Manual pg.S16)

The group and its GSR are explained, as well as the DCM and the districts. How an area and how an area committee functions are also explained. Next are the the delegate's duties, term of office, expenses, and qualifications, and the role of the alternate delegate.

There is a famous piece by Bill W. contained within called "Leadership in AA: Ever a Vital Need." The General Service Conference and the Conference Committees are explained as well as the General Service Board and the General Service Office.

There is AA Grapevine and La Vina information and guidelines as to how "Our Meeting In Print" functions and operates.

Last but certainly not least, are the XII Concepts for World Service as adopted by the 12th Annual General Service Conference of AA on April 26,1962. Therein you will see the Short and Long Forms of the XII Concepts, an introduction to them all and the Warrantees of the Conference in Concept XII.

Possibly in SENY's future we will see more workshops dedicated to this wealth of information and how we can continue to make sure that our "How it Works," "Why it Works," and "Because it Works" are available for those who don't know we are here for them.
