Title of Policy or Procedure: Website Privacy Statement
Date of Implementation: July 12, 2019
Last Date Revised: July 12, 2019

Brigid Collins House dba Brigid Collins Family Support Center places a high priority on protecting your privacy. This statement was created in order to demonstrate Brigid Collins Family Support Center’s firm commitment to the privacy of our website users. This statement explains what types of information is collected by Brigid Collins Family Support Center’s website and how this information is used.

What Personally Identifiable Information is Collected
Individuals that voluntarily register on our website to attend events or trainings, or receive Brigid Collins Family Support Center’s e-newsletter, provide us with contact information (such as name and email address). We may use this information for specific, limited purposes. You may always “opt out” at any time if you do not wish to receive our communications.

IP Addresses
Brigid Collins Family Support Center shares your IP address with Squarespace, our hosting platform and website analytics provider, for statistical metrics used to track website visitor traffic and activity.

Cookies
www.brigidcollins.org uses cookies and similar technologies, which are small files or pieces of text that download to a device when a visitor accesses a website or app. These functional and required cookies are always used, which allow Squarespace, our hosting platform, to securely and effectively run our website, provide users a great experience, and view site traffic, activity and other data. You can reject cookies or cancel them by instructing your web browser accordingly.

How Your Information May Be Used
We use your personal information to provide you with a personalized service; to send e-newsletters to you; to answer your requests; to process your donation; register you for trainings, classes, etc. You may choose to opt out at any time, which will cease communications from us. Because our website is hosted by Squarespace, Squarespace collects personal data when you visit this website, including information about your browser, network and device, web pages you’ve visited prior to coming to this website, and your IP address. Squarespace needs this data to provide users a great experience and to protect and improve its platform and services. Squarespace analyzes the data in a de-personalized form. The information collected also allows us to collect aggregate data (not identifiable personal information) to track visitor traffic and activity so we can better serve our users’ needs.
Personal Information Privacy
Brigid Collins Family Support Center does not provide, sell or rent personal information collected on our website to anyone. Individuals that voluntarily sign up to attend events or trainings, or receive Brigid Collins Family Support Center’s e-newsletter, provide us with contact information (such as name and email address). We may use this information for specific, limited purposes. You may always “opt out” at any time if you do not wish to receive our communications.

www.brigidcollins.org includes links to external websites. These links do not fall under the www.brigidcollins.org domain, and Brigid Collins Family Support Center is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of external websites. Your use of any linked website is solely at your own risk.

Modifications
We may amend this privacy policy from time to time; please review it periodically. We maintain the option to modify this privacy statement at any time by notice posted on our website. Your continued use of our website after the date that such notices are posted will be deemed to be your agreement to the changed terms.
