

Cleveland Sept. 15 1853

(Thursday night)

Dear Spooner:

I intent to arrive in Boston, by the Hall River route from New York, on Wednesday morning next, & proceed directly to Lowell, unless, by accident, I should hear my wife's being _____. I believe the Hall River train is due in Boston between 6 & 7 AM, & the ferry train in Lowell leaves at 7:45. I have another _____ letter to _____ of this. But he may not get any of them, if he has not gone to Lowell, so soon as you may properly be able to communicate with him. Please call on Mrs. Hildreth, therefore, & tell her about it; for I think it is not entirely _____ may yet be thereabouts, since I have _____ learned the _____ not go to Lowell at this time I expected she would, & have a fancy she may have been off on a _____ when with others ildbeth

In hast, but heartily, yours,

Geo. Bradburn