Lysander Spooner Esq.

My d Sir,

I wrote you yesterday morning that I was just heading home for a few days - on reading _____ (it _____ point) I met with Mr Miller on his return from Boston. _____ the only one _____ I had with him to hading me your letter enclosing me the $30. I again send you $20 for I think you had better go to New York.

I am very desirous that the remaining members of the Committee be sued. 1st because justice & _____ call for it. 2d because then a settlement of the whole matter wil _____ some _____.

Now, in your visit to New York, you may hear enough to _____ Mr Sedgwick of his fear of lacking testimony to _____ such a _____. I see be there _____ to bringing such a suit.

1st Lack of Testimony

2d The argument for changing venue from the _____ where one plaintiff _____ where the 27 (the _____ one of the 28 indeed) aside would be a formidable one.

3d In a suit against 27 influential gentlemen, it would ne rather strange if there should not be in the jury an _____ friend of at least on of them.

Nevertheless, I would ink the suit if your Mr Sedgwick should agree to publicly _____ that there would be no _____ lack of _____ him. I feel quite confident that there would not be.

Your suggestion that in end a suit we should claim ten thousand of each one
