Contact

Malcolm Turnbull, MP	(02) 9327 3988	https://www.pm.gov.au/contact-your-pm	The safety and wellbeing of all men who the Australian government forcibly transferred to Manus Island is Australia's responsibility.
Bill Shorten, MP	(03) 9326 1300	bill.Shorten.MP@aph.gov.au
Cathy O'Toole, MP	(07) 4725 2066	cathy.O'Toole.MP@aph.gov.au	We commend Cathy O'Toole MP on her strong track record of refugee rights advocacy and vocal opposition to mandatory detention, and encourage her to continue this work in Parliament and her party room.
Russell Broadbent, MP	(03) 5623 2064	russell.broadbent.mp@aph.gov.au	Russell Broadbent is the only LNP MP to actively speak out against the anti-human rights atrocity of Manus and Nauru. We thank him for his compassion and encourage him to urgently speak with his LNP colleagues to avoid the looming catastrophe on Manus.
Cathy McGowan, MP	(03) 5721 7077	cathy.mcgowan.mp@aph.gov.au	Cathy has urged the Government to "be their best selves" and look to those values Australians regard most important with the closure of the Manus Island regional processing centre on 31 October.
Senator Sue Lines	(08) 9481 4844	senator.lines@aph.gov.au	We thank Senator Lines for campaigning on important human rights issues and ask her to join some of her colleagues and speak out for the men on Manus. A grave humanitarian crisis is unfolding.
Senator Lisa Singh	(03) 6223 1135	senator.Singh@aph.gov.au	Thanks to Senator Singh for speaking out about offshore detention and the current crisis unfolding on Manus today. We ask her to urge her Labor colleagues to join with her in opposition to the atrocity that is Manus
Health Minister Greg Hunt	(02) 6277 7220	greg.Hunt.MP@aph.gov.au	The safety and health - both physical health and mental health - of all men who the Australian government forcibly transferred to Manus Island is Australia's responsibility.
Labor Health: Catherine King	(02) 6247 4396	catherine.King.MP@aph.gov.au
Senator Murray Watt	(07) 3422 1990	senator.watt@aph.gov.au	Prior to his election Sen. Watt worked for Maurice Blackburn Lawyers, and in 2015 was part of the team that prevented the Abbott Government from sending "Baby Ferouz", and 100 other Australian-born babies of asylum seekers, to detention on Nauru. We ask that he bring that stance to the party room and urge his ALP colleagues to oppose offshore detention.

Thank you to Michelle Bui and Rran WA for the contact details and information.
