Weekly Invocations for 2005

The Spiritual Aims Committee is organizing the Invocation schedule for 2005. We have now booked January and February but there are openings beginning in March to the rest of the year.

If any member of the Club feels moved to open one or two of our weekly luncheons with an Invocation, it would be greatly appreciated by the committee and I'm sure the rest of the Club. Please contact Bill Harsh at 860-3962 or the Kiwanis office.

Ottawa 67's Hockey Night - Friday, March 4/05

Cadets Committee

Thank you to the following who helped with the Air Cadet Christmas dinner on Dec 16:

President Derek Finley, Sam Bhargava, Neil McDonald, Bill Gosewitz, Patrick McGarry, Mike St. Louis, Guy Milne, Sandra Presley, Allan Castledine, Ron Vincent, and Bob Vergette

The evening was flawless thanks to the participation of seven from the parent's committee, and eleven from our Club. This was the largest turnout of Kiwanians in recent memory.

Special thanks goes out to Sandra Presley, who organized the event AND Michel Podeszinski and his staff at the Rivermead for once again cooking\carving the turkeys.

Our next meeting will be on January 24.

* Good News Network ****

Congratulations to Val Wilkins who has joined the team of Sponsored Youth Administrators for Circle K in Eastern Canada.

We will have a complete bio on Val in the FRESH K-ray next month.

Val brings a wealth of experience to the position like all of our District Administrators and I know you will be very impressed with her abilities and her drive to grow Circle K.

Sympathy of the Club goes out to Lise Pichette, Administrative Assistant at the EC&C District Office, in memory of her mother Madame Pichette, who passed away last week. Services were held on Saturday.

Sympathy of the Club also goes out to Major Max Bulmer's and his wife, Helen, in memory of Helen's sister, Bernice Hetherington, who passed away in her 73rd year, in Sault Ste. Marie. Our thoughts are with both of these families at this time.

'RAISE THE ROOF FOR ROGER' WEEK

COMING IN JANUARY 2005

A line-up including Hall of Fame coach, Scotty Bowman, NHL alumni and corporate support, eagerly joined the Ottawa Senators Foundation for 'Raise the Roof for Roger', from Monday, January 10 to Saturday, January 15, to commemorate the work of Roger Neilson and raise funds for Roger's House - pediatric palliative care facility set to serve the National Capital Region and Western Quebec in 2005.

The events for the week include:

Monday, Breakfast launch with Scotty Bowman at the Corel Centre and live on Sports Radio 1200 THE TEAM;

Tuesday, Thank Your Coach Day;

Thursday, Roger's Crazy Tie Day;

Friday, Esso 3-on-3 Hockey Classic at the Corel Centre; and Saturday, Spartacat's Kids Skate with Senators Alumni and the OutCare Foundation Celebration Telethon on CJOHTV and simulcast on TEAM 1200.

'Raise the Roof for Roger' events start early on Monday, January 10 at 5:30 a.m. with a live morning show broadcasting from the Corel Centre at the breakfast launch, featuring keynote speaker Scotty Bowman.

TEAM 1200 will continue its unprecedented week-long radio-thon, featuring high profile guests and major corporate sponsors, up until its simulcast of the telethon on Saturday.

The breakfast launch is from 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. on the Corel Centre ice.

For $100. a ticket, guests will be served breakfast, receive a copy of Wayne Scanlon's new book, Roger's World, and two tickets to the Esso 3-on-3 Hockey Classic on Friday, featuring four NHL alumni teams.
