Introduction

Dr. Katrina Lantos Swett

While the 21st century has inaugurated an era of remarkable innovation and progress largely driven by the digital revolution, this new century has also seen a resurgence of old evils and hatreds. Anti-Semitism, racism and other pathological hostilities are being disseminated and weaponized using some of the same digital innovations that we celebrate in so many spheres of life. Like nuclear energy and other developments in modern technology, the internet is both a blessing to humanity and a threat to human life. While other such developments have been subjected to regulation, so as to avoid this threat, the internet has enjoyed unlicensed freedom. America's reverence for free speech has enabled extremists and radicals of all kinds to utilize the internet to promote their murderous agendas. The global jihadi movement owes its existence to the internet, which it uses as a highway for hatred and incitement. Nazis, white supremacists, fascists, racists and others take advantage of the internet in the same way, which leads to the inevitable result: the targeting of innocent people.

Each week and sometimes each news cycle brings fresh evidence that the internet has become a dangerous and dystopian neighborhood in which haters and evil ideologues can give vent to their darkest impulses and inspire others to further their radical goals. In a society that places a high value on freedom of expression, responsible people have grappled with how best to respond to this terrible toxin online. We share the belief that sunshine and exposure can be the most effective means of countering the dangerous effects of on-line hatred.

To that end, MEMRI and the Lantos Foundation have joined forces to publish a new report: The Hater Next Door: Online Incitement Against Minorities in America. This report is a snapshot in time covering a period from November of 2018 through February of 2019.

Our report is an initial effort to expose online hatred and incitement. The truly staggering scope of hate and incitement posted daily online would require the resources of governments, major research institutes and the private juggernauts of social media, who should be held accountable for the material that they permit to be disseminated on their communication highways. We regret that to date, none of these players has been willing to undertake this task in an effective and serious way as we believe they should. With this report, we launch an on-going initiative to expose the worst of this internet-based enmity.

MEMRI brings unique skills to the task of exposing the most egregious example of this digital indoctrination to hatred and violence. For two decades, MEMRI has done ground breaking work researching the most disturbing examples of extreme anti-Semitism and Holocaust denial emanating from the Arabic, Farsi, and Urdu speaking world. After MEMRI painstakingly translates these materials into English, the media, legislatures, and policymakers can better understand exactly what is happening around the world. One recent study of more than one hundred imam sermons from across the United States clearly demonstrated calls for hate and violence against minority groups. With its accumulated decades of experience in this field, MEMRI is now joining forces with the Lantos Foundation to take on this new and urgent mission of exposing vicious hatred and incitement by Nazis, white supremacists, fascists, and racists against minority groups including Jews, People of Color, Muslims, and the LGBTQ community.

There has been much talk in recent years about the concept of intersectionality – the idea that certain social groups must automatically find common cause with one another by virtue of overlapping experiences of discrimination or disadvantage. Ironically, our report demonstrates examples of these hate-filled groups exhibiting a form of twisted intersectionality by supporting minority groups whom they usually attack, because of a shared hatred toward a third minority group. The material presented in this report vividly demonstrates that these purveyors of hate and advocates of violence have shared contempt for Jewish individuals, People of Color, Muslims, feminists, and members of the LGBTQ community.

Some of the organizations and individuals presented in this report are widely known, but their actual words of incitement and hate are not. Others are less familiar to the public. Our research has been guided by the following criteria: we seek to expose expressions of explicit hatred, demonization and calls for action against the targeted communities listed above.

Our report demonstrates that these purveyors of hate are not ideologically homogeneous. Some of them are distinctly neo-Nazi in their outlook, others are fascist, still other voices are specifically racist, segregationist and white supremacist in their perspective. Those targeting the LGBTQ community sometimes present their hatred with an overlay of religious justification.

One of the most important aspects of this report is the way it highlights the prevalence of “calls to action” that accompany the vitriolic expressions of hatred. These groups and individuals routinely propose specific forms of action as part of a general discourse of hatred and demonization. The forms of action called for are diverse and run the gamut from terrorism, on-line hacking, and guides for violent ethnic cleansing, to posting manuals for manufacturing and using various weapons and firearms.

The material in this report is chilling and disturbing but one of the hallmarks of the research work of MEMRI has been not merely to “tell” people about the reality of hate but to “show” it so that people can fully understand the threat for themselves. Reading the actual posts from online platforms makes it clear that these individuals must be exposed and stopped before they act on their evil impulses. Our goal above all is to prompt action to save innocent lives.

The aim of this report is to empower every one of us to become a digital first responder. After each new tragic episode of hate fueled violence, we hear the lament of family, friends, colleagues and neighbors that they “had no idea”, and that they “absolutely did not see this coming”. It is our hope that this report and the on-going monitoring project that we have initiated will be a useful tool in the hands of law enforcement, media, legislators, and ordinary citizens to be more alert to the threat of The Hater Next Door.

Executive Summary

Yigal Carmon

The research was conducted over four months (November 2018 - February 2019) and it offers an in-depth look into online incitement by neo-Nazis, white supremacists, separatists, fascists and other groups and individuals of similar worldviews in America.

The research focused on three main categories of incitement: Hate Speech, Demonization and Calls-to-Action.

While most of the content online targeted Jews and African-Americans, hate and demonization were directed also towards LGBTQ, women, feminists, and Muslims. We found that there are similarities between incitement from Islamist and jihadi sources, and incitement from the hate groups listed above – not only against Jews but also against Muslims.

Both groups, though vastly different in composition, follow similar lines of thinking and disseminate similar types of incitement – incitement that, as we have seen, can prompt those involved in it, whether they are jihadists or white supremacists, to take up a weapon and attack members or communities of a target group.

The content reflects: a) a prevalence of neo-Nazi, fascist, and white supremacist ideologies; b) a sense of self-victimization and paranoia, especially following violent crimes against white people, thus blaming Jews and people of color for all their problems; and c) a belief that all their ills and unhappiness is caused by the targeted groups – Jews, people of color and LGBTQ.

The content proposes specific forms of action as part of a general discourse of hatred and demonization. Those proposals are diverse, and include terrorism, online hacking, calls and guides for ethnic cleansing with weapons (including manuals for manufacturing and using various weapons and firearms).

Two forms of intersectionality appear in the online incitement: a) when a neo-Nazi/fascist/white-supremacist/segregationist praises a member of a target group (a Jew, person of color, LGBTQ, etc.) and b) when a member of a target group turns against another target group, expressing views similar to those of people who target him.

Examination of the material prompts two questions:

- 1.) What is the magnitude of this phenomenon?
- 2.) Does it constitute a real threat to the targeted groups?

To answer these questions, one must recall the 20th century history and even current events. Racism and anti-Semitism have always begun in sporadic, disorganized and seemingly marginal form. Then they grew into a threatening phenomenon due lack of attention, neglect and absent countermeasures. Furthermore, in a world of "lone wolves," solitary perpetrators affected by hate and calls-to-action who take up arms to attack (as in the case of the Pittsburgh shooting and car attack in Charlottesville) were exposed to online incitement and calls to action. Online hate speech, demonization and calls to action pose an imminent danger.

What is very urgently needed is a concentrated, well-funded effort to identify, and – most importantly – quote and document the calls-to-action, and, as pointed out above, find out who says it and who funds it. Only an effort of that kind may enable legislators and decision makers to begin to take effective action to prevent it.

These are just a few examples of the content this report documents, thanks to Michael Davis, Lead Researcher for this project. We owe him a debt of gratitude for his commitment to shining a light on these instances of online incitement against minority communities in the United States.

Examples of online incitement included in report...

This manual concerns the military operations necessary to eradicate the predatory Black race from the contiguous United States. While this manual addresses the strategies and tactics from a military perspective, it is written as much for nonmilitary personnel as it is for active duty and veteran soldiers. The reasons for this general appeal is that the primary leaders who will pull together this effort may well arise from the nonmilitary White population as much as from the ranks of the career military.

There are some who will read this manual and complain that it does not address the problems caused by other non-White races. Instead this manual is written to deal with the primary threat to the White race—Blacks. The thoughts which will germinate in the minds of racially conscious Caucasians will undoubtedly lead to the crystallization of such thoughts and ideas and will lead to the penning of such books and manuals. For now, this one will do.

We need more human children ASAP

Niggers generally can't and don't like to work. In a world with more and more young niggers and less and less young humans the global economy may stagnate and even shrink because niggers unlike humans can't sustain a modern economy. For the sake of the living standards of humanity we need more human children. Without enough human children who will become responsible and productive human adults who labor, invest and consume the global economy might stop functioning properly.

Niggers hate people talking about reality for it reveals their nature.

Scientific evidence showing that niggers are not human, defined as Homo sapiens.

They're coming for us.
This ends one of two ways.
We keep going this way and end up like the poor Whites in South Africa and Rhodesia where they are legally allowed to be murdered in cold blood.
Or we find our collective identity as ethno euros and build a parallel society to shield our membership from the fate that most certainly awaits the majority of the west and preserve a future for our children and grandchildren.

General Research Characteristics

This study covers online content posted from November 2018 through February 2019. The research examined the following criteria: hatred, demonization, and calls for action in 14 groups, six individuals, and three social media platforms.

Note: Due to the vast quantity of content posted, and since this study is only in its initial phase, not all the organizations, individuals, or platforms could be examined in depth. An in-depth examination, which is absolutely necessary, requires a large-scale research project setup.

General Content Characteristics

The organizations and groups posting this incitement are ideologically non-homogenous. Their main targets are Jews and people of color, but while some take a distinctly neo-Nazi view, others are fascist, and some are simply racists and segregationists. Anti-LGBTQ and misogynistic views are also expressed.

There are similarities between incitement from Islamist and jihadist sources, and incitement from neo-Nazis, fascists, white supremacists, and segregationists – not only against Jews but also against Muslims, people of color, and the LGBTQ community.

Both groups, though vastly different in composition, follow similar lines of thinking and disseminate similar types of incitement – incitement that, as we have seen, can prompt those involved in it, whether they are jihadists or white supremacists, to take up a weapon and attack members or communities of a target group. (While these similar lines will be the focus of an upcoming study, this first document will focus on online incitement by neo-Nazi/fascist/white-supremacist/segregationist groups and individuals.¹⁾)

Two forms of Intersectionality appear in the online incitement: a) when a neo-Nazi/fascist/white-supremacist/segregationist praises a member of a target group (a Jew, person of color, LGBTQ, etc.) and b) when a member of a target group turns against another target group, expressing views similar to those of people who target him.

Farrakhan is, of course, a complete ass. But unfortunately that doesn't change the fact that many of the things he says about Jews are true. He is somewhat hyperbolic and he sometimes stretches things over the factual edge, but a lot of what he says is at least built on real and true issues.

Quotes from Louis Farrakhan's speech at the Nation of Islam's Saviours' Day 2019 Convention, February 14, 2019:

"[The] pedophilia and sexual perversion [that are] institutionalized in Hollywood and the entertainment industries can be traced to Talmudic principles and Jewish influence. Not Jewish influence – Satanic influence under the name of Jew."

"Members of the so-called Jewish community brought our fathers out of Africa, owned the ships, owned the plantations, were the number one buyers and sellers of slaves..."

"Planned Parenthood is there waiting for you. Margaret Sanger, a so-called Jewish woman – she didn't want black babies in the world. She worked to get rid of as many as she could. Native American women... And in Israel, Ethiopian black women subjected to sterilization..."

MEMRI, February 17, 2019 [4]

Something that I have been amazed and have heavy respect for is the mentality of Fundamentalist Muslims, their mindset of "Our enemies love life, We love death" is something to recognize, and I might add that we MUST adopt ourselves. Now what does the phrase "Our enemies love life, We love death" even mean to us? Well it means simply put, our enemies are afraid to die and thus love their lives and thus leads them to cowardice and not taking things all the way, while those who utter the phrase – in this case Fundamentalist Muslims – aren't afraid of death and actually embrace such a idea of martyrdom, if they die they go Jannah (Islamic Heaven) and are blessed by Allah, if they live then they continue on fighting until death because neither life nor death matters to these people, only their faith and ideas.

This mentality is something we certainly should adopt ourselves because it's the truth. To surrender, to betray, to beg forgiveness from the enemy and to value your own life above the ideas of our own is something to feel shame in and something to abandon for certain. I want radicals, those young men willing to put down their lives for our ideas no matter the cost. Our ideas are a religion of itself and betraying those ideas should be considered a sin because a true religion is the truth and so is our ideas the truth itself. One should dedicate their lives to such a thing. I do so myself and I'm proud of it.

Re: Muslim Congresswoman Iihan Omar faces new scrutiny for trying to win leniency for 9 men trying to join ISIS

Muslims are the enemy, every Muslims apologizes to some extent for terrorism, this is no surprise to me about Iihan.

When the trade center was crashing down, every Muslim was silently happy. European have been trying to repeal Muslim invaders for years, now the leftist are just inviting them in to rape and murder us.

Let's not forget that the kikes are actually to blame for the majority of our ailments in the current age.

The Jew has near total control of the formation of minds in America from the time the child is born well into adulthood. Their media monopoly allows constant brainwashing whilst the education system is leashed to the coffers of Congress, who themselves are lapdogs of the Kikes.

No doubt, white folk have much to work on but I would urge you to reconsider the self-hate you're casting on your race.

Take a second and think about the overall message this article sends: DON'T HATE NON-WHITES, ONLY WHITES ARE BAD.

In reality, there is nothing ARYAN about Wal-Mart Nationalists but they have the necessary hardware to be functional. They have not biologically changed in a significant way; the disease is of the spirit.

The spirit is diseased because of the Jew. The Jew can disease his spirit because we weren't vigilant enough to keep them out.

Please don't lose sight of the fact that they are still of the same blood, and that even though they may be worthless themselves, we would CERTAINLY be better as a race had Hitler really gassed 6 million of those bagel baking heeb.

"Feminism was started by Jewish women, and Jewish women still control it."

"That's why feminists supported President Bill Clinton, a probable rapist. That's why feminists have supported, both overtly and tacitly (by their silence), the importation of Muslim immigrants. It's a Jewish thing. The Jews are opening the doors of America to Muslim invaders, just as Jews opened the gates of Constantinople in the 15th century, just as they opened the gates of Granada and Toledo in the 8th century."

I believe the Expedition Force (EF) could be improved upon by creating a hierarchy of communication.

This means the forum would be used for spotlighting large targets (major news events), laying out points to hit those targets with (sample posts), and funneling TPS users into DM groups within the various social media platforms.

These DM groups would be strictly for coordination purposes, not discussion. They would serve as an easy way to organize on platform signal boosting of each other (retweets, reposting, replies, etc), as well as spotlighting small targets to attack (individual enemy users such as blue-checks).

These on platform DM groups will be started by an account that does not post so there is no chance of a ban, and will always be the central point of entry back into the on platform DM group after you are banned and come back.

A new category for TPSEF should be established on the forum in order to facilitate this action.

The Purity Spiral, January 26 [9]

Preface: This is a list of tactics to keep in mind when operating shortly before, during, or post collapse. The opposing morale is an oft overlooked aspect of sustained combat. The categories of fear are in order from least severe to most severe and described in depth by doctor Karl Albrecht (checked for jewishness, hes clean.)

Source.

Extinction. All mundanes fear death. This is extremely simple to incorporate: be deadly. Train hard and operate effectively. If your opposition fears for their life solely for being your opposition, yet they'll never have peace with you, their morale drops tenfold.

Mutilation. All mundanes fear pain and survivable destruction. Because of this you should fight ruthlessly. Of course leave no survivors when possible but don't make a gunfight look peaceful, should mutilated comrades be discovered by the opposition.

Now let's move on to right wing groups. Firstly, Patriot Front. Dress code doesn't matter. Just wear something that supports American Nationalism and you'll be good. With them, they are known to already be violent. Having antecedents of tearing up illegal immigrant shelter sites, getting in direct conflict with Antifa, and hosting public rallies and flash mobs. With them it should be easier as you won't be faking your ideological basis as much, and you'll be telling them to do a lot of shit they fantasize about, however, your goal is to make their fantasies a reality. You've got the skills, make use of them. That means taking the fight directly to the communist block, and BLM. Push them into more direct conflict with these groups. Make sure they get to enact their fantasies of beating a nigger or a commie to near death. Aside from that, your goal within such a group would also be one of radicalization. During your time in PF, you should do well to spot individuals that may be convinced of the Universal Order worldview, that being The Worldview. Best way to get such people out of their Americana Circle Jerk is to show them the Siegeculture article on American Futurism. Afterwards, use the same tactics that made you an adherent to UO, and you'll be fine. (Side note: I avoided using the term Fascism when talking about PF, because they already describe themselves as Fascists. However they see it as JUST the ideology of Italy under Mussolini, we see it as the correct worldview.)

Use common sense.

A white woman raped by a black man of course abortion is appropriate the baby is not fully human.

Two white high school teens aborting a healthy white baby for lifestyle or financial reasons is morally wrong.

Black women aborting black baby's is just pest control no different then setting up fly tape and roach traps.

Article: "Proposal for The American Vanguard Union"

"By any available means we aim to achieve the reassertion of our European race as authorities over our shared destiny as Europeans. In the lands our forefathers conquered, built & cultivated we will regain our rightful position of power over the realms of politics, media, academia, finance, spirituality, industry and the military. We will bring to justice every single traitor who has chosen to aid the enemies of our nation & people, and weed out by force every corrupted element embedded in the fabric of American society. We recognize the futility extant in the accepted norms of present day political discourse and will cleave the pathway to our noble objective primarily by means of willful action. We will have no regard, nor will we have the slightest bit of tolerance for those resigned to the stagnant trappings of trite convention. We will completely uproot & efface all traces of both communism and capitalism from the nation, as both of these materialistic frameworks have functioned in tandem to destroy European traditionalism and the European peoples' sense of group cohesion."

"5. All moneyed influence in politics will be outlawed and any elected official who is suspected of receiving outside money while in office will be tried for high treason and executed of found guilty."

"6. All political officials over the past 30 years who have received moneyed donations for themselves or their campaigns from private interests outside of individual American citizens & constitutional right advocacy groups will be tried for treason and executed if found guilty."

"18. All Zionist Christians who have morally and financially supported the terrorist state of Israel will be rounded up & put to work in hard labor camps as punishment for their treason."

Allowing niggers to think they're equals is the worst thing humanity ever did. Too many humans think we owe niggers some kind of justice. Hollywood media keeps pushing it. I'm so tired of niggers wanting justice and being heard and worshipped.

Coalburning is bestiality.

Article: "Is the Zionist Movement Leading Global Dominance?"

Quotes:

"...it's how the Zionists break down and destroy societies. They use sexual revolution to destroy a society. This is what's been done to America, the sexual revolution was a Zionist operation to break down American culture (panel comment: 'to the families! Pornography, abortions...')... this is what they've done to America. This is why millions of Americans are hooked to pornography... the Zionist have been bombarding this country for decades with sexual perversion..."

Article: "TruNews Looks at Jewish Contribution to Legalized Abortion (part 2)"

Quotes:

"Judaism teaches that an unborn baby is merely water; Jews do not believe an unborn baby is a human being; they don't believe the unborn baby has a soul; Judaism teaches that a baby may be killed seconds before birth. And this is the law in the land of America today."

"... Jews, who compromise 2% of the American population, overcame their numerical disadvantage in the United States, and successfully persuaded the American people to change their views and adopt and accept Jewish morality and values. Consequently, that's why America has taken a sharp, extreme turn to the political left, and now accepts abortion, homosexuality, same-sex marriage, pornography, transgenderism, socialized health-care, gun-control and banning of Christian prayers and crosses and emblems in public places. All of these issues are heavily supported, promoted and funded by America's Jewish population."

Quote from David Duke's Radio Show:

Dr Duke & Eric Striker: By Defiance to Z.O.G. Ilhan Omar is NOW the most important Member of the US Congress!

Eric Striker: "Nazi-Germany 'euthanasia program', is often times sited as one of the worst crimes the Nazis ever committed, but you know, if you actually look at the details of it, 1939 – 1941, it was actually a way to... when the war started, they were trying to ration healthcare, so what would happen is that instead of giving... people that were dying, instead of giving them treatment that was useless, they would euthanize them..."

Fascist Forge is a forum-based site that is used by extreme fascist activists. They promote and provide tools for violence of all kinds against many groups, far left to far right, including ANTIFA and Patriot Front. Among the different discussions are guides for terrorist tactics, such as "Spotting A Climate For Starting A Cell" [23], "Brief Guide To Psychological Terrorism" [24] and "Social Engineering and Infiltration of Groups in the First World" [25]. In addition, there are posts that share links to weaponry sites, such as "DIY Firearms, Modifications and Ammunition - PDF Collection" [26]. As of mid-February, the site was offline; no information about its server and ISP is available.

Until early January 2019, the content and articles we uploaded to the site contained a large amount racist and anti-Semitic content, but the site has been shut down for approximately 2-3 weeks. On January 23, the site reopened, but with far less content since it lost all its information and backup information. However, the site does have an online library with many handbooks, manuals and other documents that explain how to prepare for numerous military and social scenarios. Among the topics that are available on the site are multiple types of guides for firearms and weaponry, white supremacy, Nazi and neo-Nazi material, and instructions for guerilla warfare [33].

This social media platform acts as a hub for different groups who are identified mostly with right-wing groups, mainly Christian white Americans, but also many others who feel that the mainstream media and social networks are depriving them of their constitutional rights. This site boasts itself on its lack of censorship, i.e. "Free Speech". While the site itself is mostly aimed at the interests of right-wing Americans, the different groups within the site offer a variety of options for the audiences and communities who feel that their liberties and freedom of speech have been impaired. The groups themselves consist of many subjects along the spectrum of ideologies associated with right-wing, from "Conservative News", "New Right Network", "RAM: Rightwing Alt Media", "Hunting and Fishing", "Leftist Tears", "Support White South Africans Under Siege" and more. This site came to the attention of the public following the October 2018 Pittsburgh synagogue attack, in which Robert Gregory Bowers shot and killed 11 people.

Evil Kike Occupation Government Charges Heroic Fag-Bashers with Fake "Crimes"

We're lucky Batman is already dead, otherwise he'd be on the chopping block next.

"So the kike occupation government (KOG) has officially made it ILLEGAL to bash faggots. What's next? I'll tell you what's next: soon enough it'll be a crime to lynch niggers. Then it will be illegal to rape an unaccompanied and uncovered slut. Next – who knows? Probably they'll start injecting children with tranny hormones or something. That might sound crazy now, but just you wait, partner. We've got a long road to go before we hit the bottom of the slippery Jew slope."

"We must understand: there is no use in bashing faggots or whatever other tentacle of the Jew system: instead, we must cut the snakes head off at the root: the Jewish root. And the great thing about that is: all you have to do to defeat the Jew is talk about the Jew! That's it!" Daily Stormer, January 10, 2019 [110]

Article: "Jewish Merchants of Sin and Porn, part 9: Jews and Porn"

"Best you and your hook-nosed tribe of filth merchants get outta town before there's trouble."

"The bottom line, as far as I see it, is this: Yes, the Jews are largely responsible for the mess we're in. But, it is up to us to get ourselves out of it — nobody is going to do it for us. If we are not strong enough to reject pornography and degeneracy in our own personal lives, then we will perish as a people and will not have deserved to live in the first place. If this is our fate, going to our grave pointing at the Jew as the reason for our downfall is not going to cut it, and frankly is a weak and pathetic way to go down. We know what the Jews are. This series and endless amounts of other books and articles unmask them, as do their own words and actions. They are our enemy. Will we again find who and what we are and overcome them, or will they succeed in destroying us and everything we hold dear? Only time will tell. I know I for one will die on my feet before kneeling to these parasites, and I know plenty of other men who are filled with the same resolve. Our numbers are growing by the day. I hope you will join us in this great struggle, if you haven't already. It will be the best choice you've ever made. I promise you that."

Tanzania: BASED Black Guys Create Anti-Faggot Death Squad

Spartacus · November 3, 2018

The only thing lower than a nigger is a nigger faggot.

"After they get rid of the faggots, they should do something about this witch epidemic"

They're calling this a surveillance squad, but let's be serious – these are niggers we're talking about.

They'll just go to a suspect, ask him "YOU EAT DA POO POO !?!?!?" and if they don't get a clear and convincing "no," they're just gonna

Which you gotta admit – is a much healthier and more reasonable way of dealing with faggots than what we're doing.

"[the surveillance team would be using social media to hunt down same-sex couples in his district.]. [He also encouraged people to hand over names of anyone they suspected of being gay so authorities could investigate.]. I never thought the day would come when I wished politicians in my own country would be more like those in Tanzania."

"Giving these monkeys the White man's medical technology is one of the worst mistakes in the history of this planet, and them giving it up themselves is great news no matter how you look at it. We need to start a trolling campaign telling these niggers that vaccines turn you into a faggot and aspirin turns their good juju into bad juju. It's time to correct the historical mistake of helping these things breed to infinity."

Article: "Colored Savage Stomps on White Nurse's Head Almost 40 Times, Leaves Her to Die Underneath Car"

Quote: "This creature totally babooned out on this poor nurse. Presumably, it was her punishment for being white."

Comment: "This is why every state needs the death penalty."

"he spent a lot of time with her body. Did they run a rape kit. Niggers often rape dead and near dead people. Probably told him 'Piss off. I'm married.'"

"This woman's picture should be on the front page of this site for everyone to see with a headline that says beautiful white nurse killed by nigger savage or something similar. We cant let stories like this get swept under the rug. The Daily Stormer should be raising hell over this one, not just business as usual"

"These apes WANT to go to prison and hang around and be faggots with their monkey chums. Need to fix that and just bring lynching back. Or just an efficient death sentence that gets carried out right after sentencing. In cases like this, where the homicidal chimp proudly admits the crime, just fucking shoot them on the spot."

Daily Stormer, February 1, 2019 [116]

Article: "Congoid Space Fantasies"

Quotes: "Racism by a more capable race, with respect to an inferior race, is sensible and, usually, defensive. Racists have learned a lesson about slavery — namely, that it doesn't last; the slaves eventually are freed, and that is when the trouble begins. So today White racists don't want any slaves. They just don't want to have any other race around them, so they can be in their country all by themselves."

"The point, however, is that the superior races (Whites and Asians) are the key to getting these things done. The inferior races (Blacks and most Browns) aren't necessary. If the inferior races were to disappear entirely, the superior races would still go into outer space. If the superior races were to disappear entirely, the inferior races would be stuck on Earth, with crumbling infrastructure that they don't know how to fix or to replace, and within a few generations they would be back in the Stone Age."

"No African country has ever launched anything into orbit. And, probably, no African country ever will. Their brains are too small. Their IQs are too low."

"The superior races can figure out how to achieve space flight. The inferior races cannot. It's the classic example of separating the high from the low, the good from the bad, the men from the boys."

I've reiterated time and again that Jews must be stripped of their wealth, privilege and influence. Their power over media ,government, banking , entertainment, publishing and even the porn industry is destroying us. They abuse the power they have and have shown time and time again that they can't be trusted. None of them should EVER be allowed near large sums of money....look what Soros does with his billions-tries to change nations. I don't want to genocide them-I wouldn't give 'em the satisfaction-I just want them out of the West, out of our hair, and back in Israel. How dare they attempt to change MY country!

Shooting a single gorilla dead when it menaces a society after it has escaped its confines is one thing. 40 some odd million Blacks are another thing.

To accomplish the removal of all non-Whites from White areas, an uncompromising goal of the National Alliance, FIRST requires that the Will to Power be put into Whites, AND that Will be channeled into productive, Alliance-building activities that will be not just self-sustaining but growing to cover other needs. This is all towards serving our needs of survival and returning our race to an upward path as the Cosmotheist life-philosophy envisions and communicates. This is the horse that must be put before the cart.

"I've made the point before but it needs reiterating because the Jews keep lying about it: the inquisition had no power over Jews. Its powers applied only to professing Christians. So when modern Jews claim their ancestors suffered under the Inquisition, they are implicitly admitting that these Jews were not real Christians, but only pretending to be. In other words, they are admitting that the Inquisition was right when it punished them for being fake Christians. Either that, or they are using a definition of Jewishness based purely on genes and not faith."

I’m sorry, but you cannot compromise with the children of the adversary... nor can you live side-by-side with them in some pseudo dual state. Article: "Broadway Jews and Darwinian Selection"

"The Jewish power structure created this sick display, and choreographed it in detail for White families and children to see — and embrace its sick message, and feel demoralized and outnumbered if they oppose it. The play was written by Matthew Sklar, a Jew, and Chad Beguelin, a homosexual. Jews may have miscalculated, though. They often do. True, they have massively reduced the number of normal, healthy successful marriages among White people. Their program of White genocide is real and ongoing, and the promotion of abnormal sexuality is part of that. But they are also forcing a kind of Darwinian selection on our race."

They should be taught about the dozens of documented faggot serial killers who have raped and murdered hundreds of little boys and young men across the West. They should be taught that even fag cibil rites icon Matthew Shepard was HIV positive.

HamishBaxter says:

November 12, 2018

"...this isn't about MEN being taught to desire other men, this is about rewiring children's brains to think that homosexual sex is just as good and valid as heterosexual sex, before the child's identity or sexuality has properly formed. You sow a few seeds into a child's mind, and he will be less resistant to an older boy's requests, or if he has a moment of sexual insecurity with his hormones raging at the age of 15, he might be tempted to experiment, where previously social censure would have kept him away from such a life-destroying decision. Even if he doesn't cross the rubicon into sexual inversion, a gay-agenda education will help to lower his barriers against seeing gays or gay behaviour as a problem, when so much of the gay nature is naturally subversive and society-wrecking. A strong society has a healthy prejudice against those who cannot be trusted to uphold its norms, and a marxist education would remove these natural defences. This is all about the state abusing its power of authority to fuck with little children's minds and their perceptions of what is good and wholesome, not about persuading 30-year-old men to start sucking D."

Apparently, a synagogue-shooting is just the kind of thing that they wanted. Of course, the crime is also exploited as an impetus for intensified censorship."

"An activist who correctly believes that Whites have a right to exist can feel a bit apprehensive about distributing flyers and may even become frustrated to the point where someone (like Robert Bowers) just snaps. So yes, that Jews themselves create the conditions on a large, nation-wide scale for a mass shooting does seem to have merit."
