

Private Art Collection to be auctioned

Saturday, June 18th at 7pm / Runnells Hall, Chocorua NH

D.W. Wharton, "Rainbow Trout," watercolor with fishing flies, valued at $600

Lynn James, "Sugaring Times," watercolor, valued at $325

Arts Council of Tamworth invites you to its annual benefit auction, featuring over 20 paintings graciously donated by the late Stephen M. Spalding of Vermont.

Watercolors from artists R.W. Bissell, Doris Ingram, Lydia Moschetto, valued from $50-250

Oils from artists Ann McFarren, Veontha, M.J. Middleton, Lennon, valued from $60-$275

...and more, including a log carving from Thailand, valued at $175

Mr. Spalding was an avid art collector and traveler. Born in Honolulu, his collection reflects the many landscapes he inhabited from the distant tropics to quaint New England scenes. Mr. Spalding often visited Tamworth to see his aunt, Joan Cave, and desired for his art to give back to the community she loved.

Tom Merwin, "Deer in a Gorge," oil, valued at $2150

Any inquiries can be directed to artstamworth@gmail.com.