BUILDING THE FUTURE: YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO GET INVOLVED

The renovation begins on May 20. Sacramento Food Bank & Family Services' (SFBFS) volunteers, staff and local businesses are getting involved. Please consider joining Linda, James and Big Hairy Dog by supporting SFBFS' Renovation Campaign.

Linda Meyers

Youth Education program volunteer and member of SFBFS Board of Directors, Linda Meyers has volunteered at SFBFS for over seven years. Last year Linda's husband honored her work tutoring students in After School Academy and Computer Clubhouse by naming a mentor room in SFBFS' Education & Technology Center for her. "We are pleased to be able to support programming that, through education, provides a pathway from poverty to good health," says Linda. "I was motivated to support SFBFS when I learned that the mission is not only to provide emergency supplies, but also to bring clients to self-sufficiency."

Sandy Malaney

Based in Sacramento, Big Hairy Dog Information Systems has provided POS and Inventory Control systems for specialty retailers for over 22 years. A large part of the culture at Big Hairy Dog is giving back to the community. Sandy Malaney, Co-Founder and CEO, learned the importance of giving back from her dad who led by example the lesson that with success comes responsibility. "Helping families in need is important because it alleviates real pain from the lives of children and their families. The assistance they receive through food and educational services may be the only piece of hope they hold," says Sandy.

James Moore

Donations Receiving Coordinator, James Moore began working at SFBFS 7 years ago. As Donations Receiving Coordinator, James interacts with donors dropping off in-kind goods for SFBFS clients. "I have seen how much good can come from even small gestures of generosity," says James. "SFBFS offers families hope and I want to be a part of that."
