

SERVICES

Subject Tutoring

Subject tutoring covers most elementary and secondary topics. Tutoring hours can be bought individually or in packages for lower rates. Hours never expire and can be used with different tutors in home, at the study lounge, or online. Hours can also be split among family members.

Individual Hour $80

5 Hour Package $375
($75 per hour)

10 Hour Package $700
($70 per hour)

Test Prep Private Tutoring

We offer ACT, SAT, and PSAT private tutoring. All of the hours are to be used with one student before the first test date.

ACT Private Tutoring Program $1000

This program includes 10 hours of one-on-one tutoring (in home or at our study lounge), a copy of our specialized curriculum, practice tests/ materials, and unlimited proctored tests at the study lounge. For every hour of tutoring, there will be about 2 hours of individual practice. We recommend allowing at least one month to complete the program, and students will generally hit their highest score after taking a total of 3 real tests.

SAT Private Tutoring Program $1000

Similar to the ACT program, this program includes 10 hours of one-on-one tutoring (in home or at our study lounge), a copy of our specialized curriculum, practice tests/ materials, and unlimited proctored tests at the study lounge. For every hour of tutoring, there will be about 2 hours of individual practice. We recommend allowing at least one month to complete the program, and students will generally hit their highest score after taking a total of 3 real tests.

PSAT Private Tutoring Program TBD

This program does not have a set amount of hours and is tailored to each students' needs. Students should use the PSAT score from their sophomore year to determine whether they should invest time into prepping for the PSAT their junior year.

Classes

ACT Prep Class $200

This 4 hour class covers all of the main ACT test sections and includes a DIY writing guide and follow-up practice materials. We review test-taking strategies, "secrets" to guessing, and ways to reduce test anxiety.

SAT Prep Class $200

This 4 hour class covers all of the main SAT test sections and includes a DIY writing guide and follow-up practice materials. We review test-taking strategies, "secrets" to guessing, and ways to reduce test anxiety.

Study Skills Class $100

This 2 hour class is dedicated to giving students the resources they need to effectively organization and retain information. We will cover how to "study for your personality type", what apps to integrate into your study routine, how to predict test questions, and how to combat test anxiety. This class will prepare you across subject areas. Regardless of what grade a student is in, it is never too late to learn how to study!

Teach Yo'Self $20

The first Wednesday of every month we host an hour-long tutorial on how to be academically resourceful. We believe that one crucial life skill, for school and beyond, is the ability to find your own answers. Each month we will cover different topics that include effectively using the internet for research, finding information on controversial topics to form your own opinion, finding creative ideas on how to complete projects, and more.

Homework Help Hour $5

Come in for some homework help! Every Thursday from 3pm-4pm, we have all the homework help you want for $5 per student! No need to sign up or RSVP. Just show up with $5, and you're in.

Ice Cream Social Media FREE

This year will be the first time that we host this event aimed at teaching students how to properly use social media. For the students, we will cover how to make your social media accounts aesthetically pleasing and what hashtags to use to gain relevant followers. For the parents, we will also cover the dangers of social media, such as the consequences of posting inappropriate or incriminating materials.
