

Imagine a world without hate

WHAT THEY DO

Anti-Defamation League is the nation's premier civil rights agency, with an initial mission to fight antisemitism that expanded to all forms of bigotry, and a broader mission to defend everyone's human and civil rights.

GOOD FOR MAJORS IN...

Business Administration
(Marketing/Management), English, Political Science, Justice Studies, History, Sociology, Women's Studies

WHAT YOU COULD DO

- Search for and aggregate media reports relevant to racism, bias and community relations
- Support regional departments with event management
- Develop a small-scale program of your choice, focused on ADL's core issues

PERFECT IF YOU CARE ABOUT...

- Human Rights
- Race/Equality

“Being a student is very different from working; you need to be more pro-active and interactive in order to improve and work with others. ADL has helped me build self-confidence, and pushed me to put myself out there.”

James, University of New Hampshire '18
History Major