

Private Lessons with Maria Chenut

By appointment only

Private lessons with Maria are perfect for Beginning and intermediate sewists interested in learning how to use their machine (standard or sergers) , those creating costume for Cosplay, LARP or The Theater and for students wanting one-on-one personal instruction.

Maria has spent the last decade creating costumes for dance & theater, using traditional methods as well as incorporating a playful use of recycled and unexpected materials. She's worked at The Sewing Room for the past year, developing a special rapport with her students.

Private Lessons are a FOCUSED way to gain the Skills you need to move forward with your goals.

Pricing

$80 / Hour (Two Hour Minimum)

In these private lessons, the student works one-on-one with Maria, after reviewing the student's application and assessing the student goals.

Our goal is help to build student CONFIDENCE by advancing their SKILLS in sewing and/or pattern making. A better understanding of sewing techniques, garment construction and pattern fitting, begin to evolve with each new project.

What you get at every level-

- ONE or TWO-hour class lengths
- Focused attention with a 1:1 student/teacher ratio
- Safe, clean & nurturing classroom setting
- Machine & Iron Safety
- Machine threading and operation instruction (as needed)
- Guidance & Instruction specific to Project or desired goal
- Tools to be more creative, resourceful, self-sufficient

Some of the topics that may be covered in your Private Lesson might include

- Beginning, Intermediate or Advanced Sewing Techniques
- Costume design
- Recycled fashion
- Copying garments