It is with sincere admiration that I recommend Corey Stewart for projects and positions that will showcase her talents in the visual arts. Corey and I have worked together at PHOENIX magazine, where she has fulfilled the role of Ad Designer and most recently, Senior Graphic Designer. As Art Director, I have had the privilege of witnessing her professional evolution as a designer and have been encouraged by her abiding enthusiasm for art throughout.

Knowing her passion for hand-lettering, I asked her if she would be interested in providing some work for the feature opener for PHOENIX magazine's 2016 Top Doctors issue (April). Working with her on this was incredibly easy. She required little direction and produced work beyond my expectation - all of this during one of the busiest weeks of the year and while simultaneously handling all of her normal work duties.

With this past successful collaboration in mind, I again sought her hand-lettering talents. This time, her work would feature on the cover (December 2016). She agreed with enthusiasm and immediately began working with the requirements provide. Despite a tight schedule, Corey was able to provide multiple variations, each fine-tuned to accommodate for multiple orientations, improved readability, and changing color schemes. The final outcome was striking and created a buzz around the office.

As a graphic designer, Corey demonstrates a broad range of skills. Both PHOENIX magazine's and Phoenix Home & Garden's in-house marketing collateral, pubset ads and special ad sections have benefitted with her on the team. I would gladly consider Corey for any position that can utilize her talents and expertise. I have every confidence that she will inspire and excel in any environment.

Corey Stewart always has a great attitude, and excited about graphic design. Corey is great to work with, she's a great listener but is not afraid of criticism. She is always full of ideas and constantly growing as a designer, and an artist. She loves to have conversations about her process, ideas, and inspiration with her clients/peers. With clients she shares her expertise, and drives off of feedback that they give her, which is extremely important as a designer. It helps make the design great in the end. She is always willing to go above what is expected with her work. Her hand lettering and graphic design skills are amazing. Anyone who gets the chance to work with her will see this all come to light.

As a former Account Executive for Phoenix Home & Garden I can't say enough good things about Corey and the time I had working with her. She is extremely talented. Corey is a visionary and is able to meet the creative demands and needs of a variety of clients. There is literally nothing she can't do. She is passionate about her work and possesses an ability to conceptualize and create complete and original designs well beyond her years. My trust in her vision and creative instincts is absolute. Aside from her natural born creative ability Corey is also an absolute joy to work with. Her calm demeanor and positivity ensure that not only will the job get done but it will get done well. The publishing industry is full of daily challenges, stresses and pressures that can overwhelm even its most veteran staff but Corey handles the pressure with grace, confidence and a can-do attitude. It was an absolute pleasure working with her, I emphatically recommend her and I look forward to working with her again in the future.

Corey and I have worked together at PHOENIX Magazine for the past couple years. I am a senior advertising executive and Corey has been instrumental with her excellent eye and skill of design and ability to recognize our key advertisers' needs. On several occasions she has made THE difference with her finished designs. She has always been my number 1 - go-to designer when we needed an ad that would knock it out of the park.

I thoroughly enjoy my time working with Corey, and have come to know her as a truly valuable asset to our team. She is honest, dependable, and incredibly hard-working. Beyond that, she is an impressive problem solver who is always able to address complex design issues with strategy and confidence. Corey is inspired by challenges, and never intimidated by them.

Her knowledge of design for magazine ads, special sections, digital and website design is a huge advantage to our entire sales team. She put this skill set to work in order to the success of team. I know that Corey is a huge part of our success with happy advertisers and the consistent growing sales that comes from that. Along with her undeniable talent, Corey has always been an absolute joy to work with. She is a true team player, and always manages to foster positive discussions and bring the work when it's needed the most.

Without a doubt, I confidently recommend Corey as a highly qualified ad designer. As a dedicated and knowledgeable employee and an all-around great person, I know that she will be a beneficial addition to your organization.

Please feel free to contact me should you like to discuss Corey's qualifications and experience further. I'd be happy to expand on my recommendation.
