Mission Statement – The purpose of the Arkansas Quilters Guild is to promote the appreciation of the rich heritage of the art of quilting and to enhance each member's own quilting skills and knowledge. It shall also be the purpose of this organization to expand and to enrich the art of quilting for future generations and preserve the existing quilts.

Wow, the end of the year is here. I don't know where the time went, but this year has flown by. I have been trying to get some quilts completed that I intend to give as gifts this year, but I, as I am sure so many of you are, am running out of time. I had completed one quilt, and after the exhibit at the Terry Library, I was able to send it off to the promised owner. I am also working on a promised quilt for a neighbor, it feels good to be on a roll, and I know it will be completed shortly.

We had a wonderful auction at our last meeting. There were a lot of us who picked up some "bargains," and now we have some other projects to complete. I know I won't run out of things to do for a while.

Speaking of running out of things to do, next year is shaping up to be a very busy year for the Arkansas Quilters Guild. We have scheduled speakers for the next few months!

January we will be having Michelle Jones from Hot Springs. She will present "Color Tool for Quilters." She has had quilts exhibited in New York; Ft. Collins, CO; Hot Springs, AR; Little Rock, AR; and Paducah, KY. She has won First Place in Machine Quilting, First and Second Place in Art and Wearable Art at the Dubai Quilt Guild Show, Dubai, UAE.

February will bring us Norma McKinnon from Hickory Hill Quilts in Hot Springs. She will be presenting how to incorporate machine embroidery into your quilts. That is some information that I need!

March we will be hosting Debbie Caffrey, she will be giving two workshop classes, and then she will be our guest at the Guild meeting and present the program.

PLEASE WEAR YOUR NAMETAG TO THE MEETINGS!
REMEMBER: NO NAMETAG – NO DOOR PRIZE!

AQG Board Meeting: January 8, 2015, 6:00 p.m., at Larry's Pizza, 12911 Cantrell Rd., Little Rock, AR

AQG Meeting: January 12, 2015, 6:30 p.m., North Little Rock Community Center, 2700 Willow, North Little Rock, Arkansas. Movie night.

PRESIDENT

April we will be instructed on longarm quilting. How to prepare your quilt, dos and don'ts. I am sure that we will receive some great instruction on what we need to do before we take our quilts to the longarm quilter.

This is just the first quarter of the year! Don't forget that we also have the National Quilting Association Show in June. Have you been thinking about the challenges for that event? Small quilts for the Little Quilt Auction, the NQA fundraiser; or the interpretation quilt that depicts your idea of life Down by the Riverside. Then there is the Sew Batik challenge. I have my piece of batik fabric, now I have to make something!

Whew! There is a lot that you can choose to be involved in this year...And I haven't even started talking about Quilt Arkansas in October!

Whenever you can, please take advantage of these opportunities, we can learn from these guest speakers, and from each other. You might see just the thing that answers a problem you have pulling a project together, or see a mix of colors or textures that you just hadn't ever thought about using. This should be a great year!

Happy Stitches!
Donna Toombs

HELLO EVERYONE!

I am looking for committee members to help us have a great next year at Arkansas Quilters Guild. If you would be interested in helping out and being a part of the volunteers that help make this a great guild, please respond to this e-mail and let me know, or call me at 501-766-0900. (Or you can talk to me at the next guild meeting.)

I am looking for hostesses (or host and hostess), challenges, demonstrations, sunshine, fund-raising, photographer, newsletter, programs, AWOL, and more...As you can see, there is a wide variety of opportunities that you can take advantage of.

This is the perfect time to make a difference in our guild. If there is something that you would like to see done differently, this is the time to step up and let your voice be heard. This guild has been in existence since 1980, that is a long time, and it has taken lots of us to keep it going, and going great, I might add!

So, if you would like to participate, please let me know. I would love to hear from you.

Donna Toombs

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

January – Michelle Jones from Hot Springs will speak on Color Tools.

February – Norma McKinnon from Hickory Hill Quilts will share about incorporating machine embroidery into quilts.

March – Quilt Celebrity Debbie Caffrey!

April – Leah and Eddie will educate us on preparing tops for the long-armed.

May – Airing of the Quilts.

QUILTERS COOK TOO

Thanks for your support of the cookbook in 2014. Without your recipe contributions, we would have had no cookbook. And, with selling only to the guild we have sold 277 books for a profit of $1,930. Books will continue to be available at guild meetings. Then later in 2015, we will place another order to have books available for sale in the AQG booth at the NQA Show in June.

Keep trying the recipes and tell us your favorites.

The Chef,
Lavern Schaap

AQG PROGRAM NOTES
DECEMBER 8, 2014

We all look forward to the December auction, and this year's event did not disappoint. Gaylen McGee, our favorite auctioneer, was as entertaining as ever, as he squeezed just a little more money out of the bidders, all for a great cause. After associating with us quilters for a few years, he's learning our strange vocabulary — not surprised by fat quarters anymore, but a little mystified by yo-yos.

And he was plenty interested in one auction item: a pair of candles from P. Allen Smith's store. Butt Naked and Lick Me All Over are thought-provoking, you must admit.

Lots of great items, lots of money raised, and lots of fun — that about sums up our December program.

Respectfully — and briefly — submitted,
Jan Partain, Assistant Program Scribe

ARKANSAS QUILTERS GUILD
MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING
8 DECEMBER, 2014

The meeting was called to order by President, Donna Toombs, at 6:35 PM. Donna began the meeting with the introduction of the 2015 officers. They are Donna Toombs, President; 1st VP - Membership, Debbie Spinks; 2nd VP – Quilt Arkansas, Alina Polta; Secretary, Sally Burrup, and Treasurer, Kim Lotz. Committee chairmen known at meeting time are: Community Service – Nola Ballinger; Fund-Raising – Latitia Nichols; Hostess – Marilyn Bradley with committee members Sharon Weinsinger and Kathy Jones; Newsletter – Jackie Bibbs; NQA Liaison – Lavern Schaap; Program Notes – Lavern Schaap, Jan Partain, and Bo Mittelstaedt; Property – Shelia Simpson; Quilt Show/Exhibit – Mary Jane Beard and Judy Young; Sunshine – Judy Young.

Help is still needed with the following committees: AWOL, Public Relations, Newsletter and Ads. Jackie Bibbs is willing to take an Apprentice for the newsletter!

Treasurer's Report – Kim Lotz

Checking Balance – $9,127.37; Outstanding checks – ($181.18); Petty Cash – $100.00; Sarah CD – $5,026.29; CD – $9,516.32; Working Balance – $8,946.19; Income for November – $768.00; Expenses for November – $855.13; Net Expense – $87.13.

The proposed budget for 2015 was published in the December newsletter. A motion was made and seconded to accept the budget as published.

Cookbooks and NQA Update – Lavern Schaap

Lavern reported that 276 cookbooks have been sold. Lavern had some available at the meeting wrapped for holiday giving (at no extra charge!).

Susan Williams will be the Secretary/Treasurer for the NQA Committee. Riley Middaugh will coordinate our National Quilting Day activities. She is hoping to be able to use the stage at Park Plaza Mall for the event. Lavern noted that her copy of the NQA Quilting Quarterly magazine arrived the day of the meeting. It contains the annual quilt design; this could be used in some way for our event. The magazine also contains information about the 2015 show and facts about Little Rock. Check out the NQA website for other information which is continually being added.

Lavern also noted that $500 was allocated in the 2015 budget for our sponsorship of the NQA annual event. One disappointment – we will not be able to have a raffle quilt. Shannon Young had volunteered to coordinate this. Thank you to Shannon!

The next NQA meeting will be on Monday, January 5, 2015, at the Whole Hog on Cantrell. Two of the NQA Board members are coming to Little Rock to meet with us. The meeting will start at 6:00 PM.

Latitia Nichols, Chairman for our guild booth at the NQA event needs volunteers!

There will be a second meeting on Thursday of the same week – January 8th. It will be a joint meeting of the National Quilting Day group (Riley's team) and the Booth sub-committee (Latitia's team). Your fearless secretary failed to note the location and time of the meeting. A reminder e-mail will be sent to the guild membership and will contain the details.

BOM and Quilt Arkansas – Alina Polta

Alina showed her completed Turkey block for November and also the Christmas Tree block for the month of December.

Alina had a sample Quilt Arkansas shirt to show the group. They are good quality denim shirts and will be on sale at the next meeting. There will be sample shirts to try on for sizing. Payment is expected at the time of order and will be right around $25.

Membership – Debbie Spinks

We now have 130 members.

Community Service – Nola Ballinger

Our guild donated 37 quilts to tornado victims from the spring tornado in the Mayflower/Vilonia area. We donated through three groups: The Vilonia United Methodist Church, Catholic Charities, and the Mayflower public schools. One quilt was donated to an individual, a woman who was picked up physically thrown by the storm. Miraculously, she was not injured. Those present to make the donations were able to locate this woman and give her one of the quilts. Nola thanked the group for their willingness to participate.

Nola told the guild of plans for 2015 (she is continuing as our Community Service Committee Chair). We will work with Hospice Home Care. Their program includes 35 in-patient beds and they average assisting about 70-75 folks during a year. Recommended quilt sizes are lap, crib size, and twin size. Fleece blankets are welcome. Nola is planning on taking quilts to them on a quarterly basis unless there is enough to warrant more frequent deliveries. Prizes will again be given to guild members who participate. Drawings will be held in April, August, and November.

Fund-Raising – Pat Crawford

Pat thanked the group for a great year!

Quilt Exhibit – Mary Jane Beard

The Terry Library wanted to have an informal voting on the quilt exhibit to add interest to our display. Results are: 4th place was a tie between Debbie Spinks and Alina Polta. 3rd place was our own Exhibit leader, Mary Jane Beard. 2nd place was garnered by Shirley Clark and 1st place in the voting was Susi Olson for her Rainbow creation. Thank you to all who participated.

Hostess – Beverly Phillips

We had 56 members and 2 guests at the meeting. The guests were Robin Tyler and Darla Brown. Door

MINUTES

prizes were won by Latitia Nichols, Pat Crawford, and Frances Wade.

Programs – Liz Ketcherside

Liz thanked everyone for their donations for the auction. Our January program will be Michele Jones from Hot Springs who will talk about Color Tools. Michele is affiliated with Hickory Hill Quilts in Hot Springs Village. Norma McKinnon from Hickory Hill Quilts will provide the February program with her subject being how to incorporate embroidery into quilts. Debbie Caffrey will be our National speaker in March. Sign-up sheets for Debbie's classes will be available in January.

Liz called Eddie Landreth up to present a gift to our wonderful president, Donna Toombs. It is a Signature block quilt done in bright colors with a white background. It was designed by Leah Sample. There are still some blocks available for signing if guild members had not yet provided a signature.

Show and Tell

Beverly Phillips had a tale. Her twin boy grandsons will be born the morning after our meeting bringing them to a grand total of 8 grandchildren! Donna Toombs showed her gift quilt. Jan Partain showed us "What Are You Doing Here?" It is a landscape challenge showing climate change comes to Scotland and it is her own design. It contained a cartoon landscape of Scotland with pebbles from Loch Lomond and hand-made porcelain buttons from Isle of Skye. There are two birds on the quilt; a Puffin (a Northern bird) talking to a Parrot (a Southern bird). Toni Baker showed us her quilt called Duck Duck Goose for a friend who is really into hunting and the outdoors. The colors requested were blue, sand and brown. It was quilted by Eddie Landreth.

Shannon Young showed her completed BOM Sampler from Pinwheel Fabrics for 2014. It is a Civil War reproduction. Sharon Weinsinger brought Peace Cottage which was a landscape challenge. It won 3rd place in the challenge competition. It was quilted by Eddie Landreth. Like Jan's, it was to contain a bird and a tree. Sharon depicted her bird by using a Flying Geese block. Jackie Bibbs showed us Best Wishes which is a Signature block pattern she made for her nephew's wedding (last July). Jackie gave a hint to always use pigment-based ink for photos included in quilts. Susi Olson showed us a Frozen-themed quilt that included snowflakes. It was made for her great-niece in Ohio.

There being no further business, the business portion of the meeting was adjourned so those present could enjoy the holiday refreshments and get ready for the auction.

SCRAPS

- * Want to Print Photos on Fabric? Before you buy an ink jet printer for fabric printing, check out Dominica's research. She tried and documented fabric printing with different printers here: <http://www.easysewingforbeginners.com/category/howtoprintonfabric/>. (Best to do the research BEFORE sewing the blocks together! – ed. note)
- * After Christmas Budgetary blues? Browse through the freebie section of Connecting Threads and it won't cost you a dime. There are video tutorials on techniques and tools, as well as patterns, labels and even a game: <http://www.connectingthreads.com/cfPromo/Freebies.cfm>
- * App Appetite: Check out this iPad app: Waterlogue transforms your photos into watercolor images; great for creating quilts from favorite photos.
- * Message from Jim Gatling: Click on this for the December AQG Meeting and Christmas party and Auction: <https://jimgatling.wordpress.com/2014/12/16/arkansas-quilters-guild-christmas-party-and-auction-pictures/>.
- * Planning to make a Miniature Quilt for the June show? There's a good article in the QUILTING QUARTERLY magazine about how to quilt minis. Keeping the quilting in the same scale or proportion is as important as not overwhelming the mini with too much quilting. Don't be intimidated by minis... they can be quickly finished!
- * Fabric Box Tutorial – It is simple enough to complete in about an hour, which makes it perfect for a last minute hostess gift. Fill it with candy and you are ready to go! These instructions are for 10" squares. Tutorial can be found at seasidestitches.blogspot.com/2013/03/fabric-box-tutorial.html.

NATIONAL QUILTING ASSOCIATION NEWS

IMPORTANT MEETING —

Monday, January 5, 2015, 6-8 pm, Whole Hog Cafe on Cantrell

Two of the NQA board members will be meeting with us to report on the NQA Show, Down By The Riverside, which is coming to Little Rock in June.

NATIONAL QUILTING DAY, SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 2015

Riley Middaugh has volunteered to coordinate our activities for National Quilting Day. Please contact Riley (ram0220@aol.com) with your ideas and suggestions.

46TH ANNUAL QUILTING ASSOCIATION SHOW “DOWN BY THE RIVERSIDE” JUNE 18-20, 2015 STATEHOUSE CONVENTION CENTER LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

Continue to check the NQA 2015 Show website for updates concerning the show. Teachers and classes are to be announced in early January.

And, register to volunteer at the show if you have not yet done so. All volunteers must register through the website. For volunteering you will receive a free entrance fee to the show.

AQG BOOTH FOR NQA SHOW

Latitia Nichols is chairing our Booth Committee for the NQA Show. Please volunteer to help her on the committee and/or to work in the booth during the show.

AQG MEMBER INVOLVEMENT

Marcel Miller, the President of NQA, has asked AQG members to be involved in making the show a success. What can you do?

- * Join NQA if you would like discounted fees for entering quilts and enrolling in classes.
- * Enter a quilt – the first 400 entries are accepted.
- * Make a quilt for “The Little Quilt Auction” – the main fundraising event of the show.
- * Be ready to enroll in classes taught by nationally known teachers.
- * Tell your quilting and non-quilting friends about the show.

There will be 400 competition quilts, over 200 exhibition quilts and almost 100 vendors. And, the week of the show (June 12-20, 2015) there will be MULTIPLE opportunities for volunteering.

NOTE: All volunteers must register on the NQA website.
