

We've had the pleasure of sharing many amazing Hawaii weddings and special events with some great clients. Here's what they have to say!

"My fiancé and I discussed with our wedding planner that we wanted a unique, indie group to play at our ceremony and cocktail hour. She found Foreseeable Futures, and as soon as we heard a sample of their music, we knew they were the perfect fit for what we were looking for! We contacted them straight away, and they were luckily free for our wedding date.

Leading up to our big day, it was a seamless process working with Phil and Anna from overseas. They always replied quickly to all of our questions and had clear deadlines on the information they needed, so we could plan ahead. We loved that they had a wide array of songs in their repertoire, but that we could also request songs for them to learn as well. They sent recorded versions of the three songs we requested several weeks prior to the wedding so we could see how they sounded, which was amazing! They are completely knowledgeable about their craft, and based on the songs we selected, they suggested adding a hand drummer they work with for a fuller sound, which was a great addition.

Several months out from our wedding, we were able to visit Oahu, and we were really looking forward to meeting our vendors. We contacted Phil and Anna, and not only did they invite us to a show, but also to one of their favorite spots in Waikiki on another night to chat. We were so impressed with their talent onstage, and equally impressed with how lovely they both are.

They were genuinely interested in getting to know us, and by the end of the night we felt like old friends! After meeting them in Hawaii, we asked if we could amend our contract for them to stay at the event longer to play our first dance, "You Are The Best Thing" by Ray LaMontagne. They were easily able to make the change, and it was so meaningful for us to have them play our first dance live. They were even able to include the accordion into the song; I don't think there is anything that this group can't do!

They were absolute pros on the day from arriving and setting up on time, to dressing impeccably, to blowing everyone away with their musical and vocal skills. We received so many compliments from our guests on what a fantastic group they were! We wholeheartedly recommend Foreseeable Futures for any wedding or special event."

Meghann & Fareid (Wedding, Royal Hawaiian, Summer 2015)

“We've booked Foreseeable Futures for two events at The Pig & the Lady -- Valentines Day and Mothers Day brunches. Their music, easygoing demeanor and persona set the tone for both events perfectly, creating a mood and feel that was both calming, loving and romantic. Our diners loved their music sets and complemented the dining service by providing a welcoming atmosphere that felt like a blanket to roll up into. We look forward to booking them for more future events.”

"When we started searching for wedding music on Oahu, we expected we'd find a few people with guitars that played run of the mill wedding tunes and might be able to play a song request or two. What we found was a duo that plays our favorite music, and who was open and flexible to essentially whatever we wanted! The extra, extra bonus was that they were lovely and kind people. You can imagine how lucky we felt!

Throughout our wedding planning process, Phil and Anna kept in close contact with us with the most utmost professionalism: always getting back to us in a timely manner, keeping us updated on their progress with songs and planning, and letting us know costs and the reasons for them. I'll say it again - they are so professional!

When our wedding day came around, Phil and Anna were extra accommodating with set up times and arranging themselves around our schedule. They'd been so great and hadn't even gotten around to playing yet!

And when they did begin playing - wowie talk about talent! Phil and Anna both have the loveliest voices; we were absolutely, completely serenaded by them. Phil's not too shabby on the guitar either! They were a perfect mixture of being background music and then having everyone join in for singing a verse or two. We can't express how much we enjoyed the music they played and how they played it - all our favorites and awesome versions. All throughout dinner they sang and played for us and our guests. Our friends and family couldn't get enough of them!

Best decision of our wedding (except each other, of course) was choosing Foreseeable Futures as our music for the evening. To say we highly recommend them would be an understatement and we just can't thank them enough!"

Jaclyn & Phil (Wedding, Dillingham Ranch, Oahu's North Shore, Summer 2014)

"Foreseeable Futures were a huge hit with everyone at our wedding! Phil and Anna have such beautiful voices and their repertoire is amazing. We also had them play our picks during our ceremony and cocktail hour, and they were so accommodating. Our first dance was truly a highlight, a super emotional moment, and the band just made it so special for us. Their drummer is rockin -- we definitely recommend having the trio perform. And also Anna on the melodica was awesome. So many great memories!"

Valaer & John (Wedding, Private Residence on Oahu's North Shore, Fall 2014)

"Foreseeable Futures were perfect for my wedding! They arrived right on time, set up everything without needing any help, and the music was amazing! My husband and I actually tried to stretch out the wedding so we could listen to the band longer, they were that good! At the end of the wedding people were still dancing into the night, and so the band left all their equipment set up and let the party roll on! They were friendly, talented, and very reasonably priced. We would highly recommend them for any event you have coming up!"

Briana & Jeff (Wedding, Private Residence in Makaha, Oahu, Summer 2013)

"My husband and I met Phil and Anna at a graduation party and instantly became friends. After hearing them belt out a few tunes, we knew we wanted them to sing at our wedding. Our wedding reception took place at a small Hawaiian beach club where no mics or amplifiers were allowed. But they rocked out our favorite songs acoustically (which is really hard) and everyone there was blown away. They specially learned our "first dance" song for the event ("Into The Mystic" by Van Morrison) and to this day we still get tears in our eyes when we hear it."

Stephanie & Noah (Wedding, Kalama Beach Club in Kailua, Oahu, Summer 2013)

"Phil and Anna were the perfect entertainment at our wedding celebration. They were easy to work with, professional, and even learning specific songs we requested. Their sound is amazing and a perfect fit for an island event."

Alissa & Chris (Wedding, Private Residence in Anahola, Kauai, Spring 2014)

"Phil & Anna really helped make our wedding a fun and special occasion. They brought a great mix of music and songs, keeping the energy high when needed, mellow when appropriate and always fun. Phil worked with the hardware sound guys we rented from, making it all work and keeping it all running smoothly. They were professional, easy to work with and very responsive. These two were awesome on all fronts and we do not hesitate to recommend them to anyone."

Grey & Tanya (Wedding, Pahala Plantation House, Pahala, Hawaii - Big Island, Fall 2013)

I couldn't recommend a better group to play at a wedding than Phil and Anna (Foreseeable Futures). It's hard to find a reasonably priced duo in Hawaii that can play not only so many of today's popular songs, but be open to new requests as well. The pair are both equally amazing musicians with Phil jamming unique rifts on his guitar while supporting Anna's amazing voice. All of our guests were impressed with the live music and always comment on how much more fun it was than having a regular old DJ. The best part is that Phil and Anna are great to hang out with on their own, and instead of feeling like you're hiring a band to play at your wedding, it feels like you have two friends up there singing straight from the heart. These two will not disappoint.
