PHARMACY TO PIZZERIA

In 2008, a Polish-German immigrant, two first generation Italian-American brothers and an Ukrainian Pizzaiolo, came together to open Transfer Pizzeria Café.

From an old diner, a pizzeria was born. The namesake is Transfer Pharmacy, a classic cornerstone drugstore from a bygone era that for decades supplied a thriving community with goods and services (as evidenced and preserved by the stained glass windows still in place). This pharmacy was appropriately named for the constant activity that took place just outside — the boarding, departures, and transfers of the countless daily commuters of the time. A web of streetcar routes and bus lines have long defined this corner. Today, Transfer's location remains a hub for public transit. Dozens of times a day, the 15, 17, 54, green line, and others take a pause here, before continuing up and down 1st Street, Kinnickinnic Ave, and Mitchell Street.

We like to think we continue the tradition of a reliable cornerstone establishment, but in our own way. We kept the name, while delivering our customers a unique dose of delicious pizza, drink, atmosphere, and friendly service.

As always, we thank you for your visit!
