Hanford History Project
Community Partnerships
Hanford Oral History Project
The Hanford Collection
The Freshman Seminar
Outreach & Education
OurHanfordHistory.org

- Department of Energy
- B-Reactor Museum Association
- Herbert M. Parker Foundation
- TRIDEC
- Northwest Public Television
- Richland Public Library
- African American Community Cultural & Educational Society (AACCES)
- Max E. Benitz Memorial Library
- East Benton County Historical Society
- Hanford Reach Interpretive Center
Preserving the voices of Hanford's unique past

>160 oral histories captured, digitized, and transcribed since 2014

>than 350 partner oral histories digitized and transcribed

NPS Civil Rights Grant, “Documenting African-American Migration, Segregation and Civil Rights History at MAPR, Hanford Preserving our history ...

The Hanford Collection: Archives and Artifacts

Telling our stories ...

Washington State University Tri-Cities
World Class. Face to Face.
The Freshman Seminar: Hanford, A Case Study

- Interdisciplinary Team-Taught Course
- 120 Freshmen
- Large Group Lectures M/W
- 5 Small Group Workshops Fridays
- Team-based “real world” projects
- Easily upscaled as class size increases
Outreach and Education

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY

is pleased to announce its upcoming conference

Legacies of
THE MANHATTAN PROJECT

Featuring in 75 years of a nuclear world with scholars from across the country, National Park Service representatives, and historians and community activists from each of the three Manhattan Project National Historical Park sites (Hanford, Los Alamos, NM, and Oak Ridge, TN).

March 15-18, 2017
Rod Lind Hanford House
Richland, WA

For more information or to register visit:
https://washington.edu/hanfordhistory or call (509) 372-7447

Hanford
HISTORY PROJECT

Hanford History Project

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
Challenges and Opportunities