The Richard K. Reznick Wilson Centre Research annual event was established to celebrate the remarkable depth and breadth of scholarship in health professions education underway at the University of Toronto and the University Health Network. Whether in person or virtual, we will continue to highlight our community’s successes and accomplishments.

Keynote Panels

On Thursday October 12th, our hybrid Keynote Talk and Panel will take place from 1:00pm – 2:30 pm. The first talk will be provided by Dr. Ivy Bourgeault, Professor in the school of Sociological and Anthropological Studies at the University of Ottawa and the University Research Chair in Gender, Diversity, and the Professions. The second “talk” will begin with a panel of leaders and change agents sharing an interest in health systems change and health professions education. This panel and the follow-up discussion will be moderated by Wilson Centre Scientist, Dr. Paula Rowland.

Virtual Podium and Rapid Fire Sessions

In 2023 the “Research Week”. Rapid Fire sessions and Podium Presentations will be combined into themed sessions and presented in facilitated and moderated virtual sessions on October 10th and 11th. Specific dates and times for these sessions will be announced with the abstract acceptances.

Format

- Online Rapid Fire presentations with facilitation specific times to be confirmed later
- Online Podium presentations with facilitation (specific times to be confirmed later)
- Podium presentation sessions: 10-minute presentations followed by a 5-minute discussion
- Rapid Fire presentations: 1 POWERPOINT or PDF Slide. Presented for 3 minutes followed by 2 minutes of questions

All members of the Wilson Centre and graduate students who engaged in education scholarship are invited to attend and participate in the program.
