

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS – PLAN, PREPARE AND RESPOND

What will I learn?

- How the brain responds when faced with emergency situations
- How to plan and prepare for a range of emergency situations
- How to prioritise the response
- How to develop risk management action plans
- How to work effectively with the emergency services
- How to manage highly emotional issues involving staff that has an impact on others
- How to manage the negative impact on oneself and others during and following an emergency

Who should attend?

This course is for those who oversee the planning, preparation and response to emergency situations or traumatic events.

It is suitable for directors, general managers, office managers, property managers, facilities managers, chief and deputy wardens, shopping centre managers or operation managers.

How will it benefit my business?

- A consistent approach to emergency response
- Decision makers able to make decisive and accurate decisions for faster recovery
- Communication during emergency enhanced
- Emotional stressors are reduced, therefore, personal recovery time is faster

How do I book myself onto a course?

Please complete the booking form attached and return to training@safetyfirst.co.nz

Emergency Preparedness Training

20 October 2016

9:30 until 16:30

Willeston Conference Centre
Level 11-Room 2
15 Willeston St (cnr of Victoria and Willeston St)

$495.00 + gst
per person

Includes morning tea & coffee, lunch, afternoon tea and coffee

Multiple booking discounts available

SAFETY FIRST
Grant Thornton Building
152 Fanshawe Street
Auckland 1010

www.safetyfirst.co.nz