Objectives

Marcus Bruning Training and Consulting, LLC was founded to foster knowledge and understanding for Human Services and other Service Professionals toward a common mission, purpose and function. I am committed to effecting change in organizations to develop a coordinated public safety community response through best practices, innovation, and intelligence-based goals and objectives. The focus of educational programs is in special investigations and coordination training in domestic violence, sexual assault and crimes against persons from the very young to the elderly. Advanced techniques and tactics are incorporated into a trauma-informed approach to law enforcement services. Additional work has been done in affecting change in organizations and leadership across the nation.

The sharing of knowledge and information is powerful. Marcus Bruning has trained law enforcement officers, prosecutors and advocates in all fifty states, the U.S. Territory of Guam and across Canada. The company motto is Guiding The Way.
