Program Descriptions

Arise
Rising 9th & 10 Graders
For students who will be in 9th & 10th grade, Arise is a co-ed program that focuses on building the skills it will take you to succeed as a member of a team, in high school and college!

Arise focuses on advocacy and community service, while tackling issues that YOU think are important to your community.

Led by Amanda Seecharan: amanda@saya.org

Young Women's Leadership
Rising 11th Graders
YWL is a welcoming space for female-identifying youth entering the 11th grade in the fall. You'll explore leadership inside and out via discussions on current events, gender justice, identity, etc.

YWL will empower you to own your truth and step into your power! You'll journey into uncovering your natural leadership style through a combination of interactive and reflective activities. (Includes SAT Prep)

Led by Seema Choudhary: seema.choudhary@saya.org

Young Men's Leadership
Rising 11th Graders
YML is a program designed for male-identifying rising 11th graders. You'll engage in topics on mental health, gender/identity, societal expectations, etc.

You'll leave YML with increased self-awareness through a combination of introspective and discussion-based activities that develop your leadership identity. (Includes SAT Prep)

Led by Asad Naeqvi: asad.naqvi@saya.org

Senior Cohort
Rising 12th Graders
For students who will be in the 12th grade, Senior Cohort is an intensive co-ed program that will spend time reviewing the college application process (including writing the college essay, building school lists, and exploring opportunities) and the remainder of the course will be dedicated to discussing and participating in activities that center on current events and media, politics, and topics of your interest in order to increase college-level academic skills! (Includes SAT Prep)

Led by Raymond Huang: raymond.huang@saya.org

SAYA is a free after school youth development non-profit organization that offers Leadership groups, SAT Prep, and enrichment clubs like sports, games and art.

At our fully in-person programming at Elmhurst Center, we offer snacks, hang out spaces, and opportunities to build connections among high school youth of all backgrounds and identities across NYC.

College Transitions
Rising College
For students who are currently in the 12th grade, and will be graduating in June, College Transitions is a wrap-around program that helps you transition to your chosen college, fill out your enrollment and financial aid paperwork, and answers questions about the social, emotional, financial, and academic transition into adulthood.
