This document contains unedited, collated responses to a survey of 64 Youth Ambassadors for use at the 2019 Community Development Workshop (CDW). Survey questions were designed by the CDW planning committee to bring the youth voice into the breakout sessions. Questions relate to the topics of each breakout session.

Bulleted points in black are answers from Youth Ambassadors at the Michigan Ave site and blue denotes answers from Youth Ambassadors at the DeLaSalle site.

- A mostly healthy family relationships and an environment where you can go outside without fear
- What safe housing looks like to me is a safe place to sleep at night, and a clean house. Also, a place with food and lights.
- Both hot and cold water, heat and food
- What a safe house looks like to me is when you have food, electricity, and there is no violence
- Locks on doors and having your parents around
- No break-ins, locks on doors
- No fighting amongst the neighborhood
- It’s clean and everything works, and trees, it’s a safe neighborhood
- Food, water, everyone is taken care of and no one is getting fat
- Everyone eats, bullets don’t fly every night. Music ain’t played loud all night
- Responsible people
- A good environment where you are free to be who you are
- When you feel comfortable in your home or going to somebody else’s house
- A house where families don’t have to be scared at night, and where they feel welcome or happy to be there
- How you are treated in your house. How clean your house is.
- No holes in the walls, no open holes in the roof. No guns
- No graffiti on walls, locked doors, clean
- Being able to just go home and not worry about nothing
- Safe housing is a clean house, a place where you can go outside without an old drunk talking to you, a place for the community in walking distance
- Having a house with no problems. A house without problems/issues
- Safe housing looks like a family who builds on one another. A family who des all they can to be the great they can be
