

KNOWLEDGE Doesn't stop after one degree.

Become a Professor and pursue your dream of life-long learning and mentoring.

What is The PhD Project?

The PhD Project is an alliance of foundations, corporations, universities, and professional and academic organizations dedicated to increasing minority representation in the business world. Our expansive network of support helps African-Americans, Hispanic-Americans and Native Americans attain their business Ph.D., become business school professors and serve as role models to attract the next generation of minority business leaders.

Some facts that may influence your decision to pursue a career in business academia:

- Virtually all universities do NOT charge tuition and DO provide stipends for business doctoral students.
- You do NOT need an MBA to enter a doctoral program.
- Academic salaries are VERY attractive.
- Experience and maturity gained in the corporate world are highly valued.

What are the Benefits to You?

- You will have a Channel for your Passions and Interests
- You will experience Maximum Opportunity for Work-Life Balance
- You will have the Rare Opportunity to Mentor a Generation
- You will enjoy the Collegiality of an Academic Environment and Lifestyle
- You will realize excellent Earnings Potential
- You will enjoy a Stimulating, Lifelong Career

Our Results are Impressive:

When The Project started in 1994, there were just 294 minority business professors throughout the U.S. Today this number has more than quadrupled to over 1,500 and is increasing every day.

To be eligible to attend our November annual conference, you must be starting your senior year of college that Fall.

"I am evidence of the power of The PhD Project. I would not have applied to a PhD Program when I did, would not have applied to the schools that I did and would not have successfully completed without the information and community of support provided by The PhD Project."
