NC Trooper Association Endorses Judge Bob Hunter for NC Court of Appeals

The North Carolina Trooper Association has announced its endorsement of Judge Bob Hunter in his candidacy for the North Carolina Court of Appeals. Sgt. Danny Jenkins, president of the association, released the following statement:

“The North Carolina Troopers Association is proud to endorse Judge Bob Hunter in his bid for the NC Court of Appeals this November. Countless troopers have worked closely with Judge Hunter throughout his entire legal career.

As an association committed to advancing proper law enforcement and supporting the betterment of criminal justice, we strongly believe that Judge Bill Hunter will effectively continue to serve the people of North Carolina on the Court of Appeals. Judge Hunter is a friend of troopers across our state and we wholeheartedly endorse his candidacy.”

The NC Trooper Association was founded in 1977 and serves a membership of 2,000 current and retired troopers. For more information about the organization, visit our website at www.nctroopers.org.
