FOR THE GROUP: Working it out together

1. Pastor Daniel said, “The life that Jesus has not called us to... is a life full of apathy.” Can you think of a situation in the area you live or travel where you have not shown or felt concern?
2. Read Luke 10:25-37. Who in this story had apathy? Who was the good neighbor?
3. Pastor Daniel said, “The church does not exist for us. We are the church and we exist for the world.” What would be example of one being called by Jesus to “be” the church to show care and concern for the hurting world around us?
4. Of the three reasons Pastor Daniel shared that cause us to have apathy, which one(s) have you felt recently? Explain. Apathy because: 1. Too much bad information; 2. Feel helpless to make a change; 3. Blessed by our comfort causing us to be passive.
5. Pastor Daniel said, “How do we disengage in apathy...consistently expose yourself to something that creates a righteous discomfort.” Is there anything that can compel you to help in any way to your answer to #4?
6. If we are the church who exist for the world, what is Jesus telling us in Luke 10:36-37?

FOR THE INDIVIDUAL: Take Away

1. Focus on something.
 - a. Focus on the thing that captures your heart
 - b. Rather than make a little difference in many places, make a big difference in a few
2. Embrace what hurts
 - a. It is easier to hurt with a purpose than to exist without one
 - b. Pray for a burden to compel you to move in compassion to make a difference.
