HAYWARD  Alameda County, California, U.S.A.

THE CITY OF RURAL CHARM . . . WHERE THE CITY BLENDS WITH THE BEAUTY OF THE OPEN COUNTRY
CHARMING GARDEN-SURROUNDED HOMES

- Set back from the tree-bordered streets are homes surrounded by green lawns and beds of colorful flowers... in an equable climate families find contentment in a life that abounds with great richness. Residential sites in almost any price range are available in Hayward... from a modest cottage to an urban estate... each home is surrounded with green lawn and beds of varicolored flowers.

- Hayward offers ideal conditions for hillside estates... moderate priced homes for the industrial worker... rich agricultural land for farmers... Industrial sites for industry.

The colorful days of the Spanish Dons form a glamorous background for Hayward. Where the city now stands once were the broad, sweeping acres of Rancho de San Lorenzo... the rambling adobe home of Don Guillermo Castro stood where now is the imposing Hayward City Hall. Don Castro himself laid out the town in 1854... fine homes and prosperous agricultural and industrial areas have replaced the rolling hills where cattle grazed a hundred years ago.
MODERN IN EDUCATION

Children living in this rich community are offered the finest educational facilities from kindergarten through high school... around the beautiful Hayward High School center some 20 other schools in the Hayward Area, each with from 4 to 60 acres of grounds and ample recreational facilities. Within a short distance are the University of California, Stanford University, St. Mary's College, Mills College, University of Santa Clara and other famed educational institutions.

YEAR 'ROUND BLOSSOMS

A floricultural industry of $11,000,000 centers in Hayward... more than 3,000 acres are devoted to the production of blooms that are shipped to all parts of the nation. Each year hundreds of thousands of gardenias, orchids, camellias and other rare flowers are sent to the metropolitan centers. Here are grown many of the flowers used in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, Portland Rose Show, New Orleans Mardi Gras, and other famed floral exhibits.

Vast acres of orchards are a mass of varicolored blossoms during the spring... throughout the year the hundreds of nurseries attract visitors from all parts of the West.
RICH HARVEST IN AGRICULTURE

HAYWARD, CALIFORNIA

Where once roamed great herds of long-horned cattle is centered one of the richest agricultural areas in California... fruits and vegetables in abundance are raised for the tables of the nation... from the farms are shipped hundreds of thousands of eggs, thousands of pounds of dressed poultry, rabbits and squabs to all parts of the nation.
Central and Northern California Crossroads

Four great state highways, fast rail transportation, bridges flung across the San Francisco Bay make Hayward the natural crossroads of Central and Northern California. Motor coaches bring Hayward to within a few minutes of Oakland and San Francisco.

Highways to Treasure Island

An abundance of cheap power, unlimited industrial water and ideal sites invite industry and homeseekers. Locations for homes and ranches are found in the rolling hills surrounding the Hayward business district. Rapid transit facilities direct to the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island.
