

EVENT SPOTLIGHT

Service Dog fundraiser

On Dec. 9, Betsy Frost Design will donate a portion of sales to the Service Dog Project.

Fifteen percent of sales at the Betsy Frost Design Pop-Up Shop and online sales at betsyfrostdesign.com will be donated to the Service Dog Project. Additionally, 50 percent of all sales of the Service Dog Project jewelry line will be donated to the organization.

Service Dog Project founder and president Carlene White will make an appearance at the store from 2 to 6 p.m., along with service dogs.

The Service Dog Project provides Great Danes to individuals who have severe balance and mobility limitations. The dogs provide a valuable service and enhance the quality of life for their owners.

Event basics

WHAT: Service Dog Project fundraiser.

WHEN: The Betsy Frost Design Pop-Up Shop will host Carlene White and service dogs 2 to 6 p.m. Dec. 9. Sales made on betsyfrostdesign.com up to midnight EST Dec. 9 will benefit the Service Dog Project.

WHERE: Betsy Frost Design Pop-Up Shop, 4 Elm St., Ipswich.

COST: Free admission.

INFO: For information, visit servicedogproject.org.

On Dec. 9, Betsy Frost Design will donate a portion of sales to the Service Dog Project. COURTESY PHOTO