Erie Junior Philharmonic

The Erie Junior Philharmonic, now celebrating its 75th anniversary, provides students from across the region the opportunity to learn from Erie Philharmonic musicians and world-class guest soloists, including Grammy-nominated violinist Simone Porter and alumnus Alan Baer, Principal Tuba of the New York Philharmonic. Performance opportunities include a side-by-side concert with the Philharmonic and a special festival performance in the spring.

Erie Junior Philharmonic Chorus

The Erie Junior Philharmonic Chorus challenges students to be leaders in their school ensembles by offering vocal, choral and leadership training along with advanced musical skills. Now with two ensembles available for grades 1-12, students will have the opportunity to perform alongside the Erie Philharmonic and Erie Philharmonic Chorus at the iconic Warner Theatre. This unparalleled learning opportunity is now the pinnacle of vocal training in NW Pennsylvania.

Handel’s Messiah

One of your favorite holiday traditions is back at the beautiful First Presbyterian Church of the Covenant! The Erie Philharmonic and Erie Philharmonic Chorus are excited to welcome back four world-class soloists for two performances to put you in the holiday spirit. Tickets sell fast for these concerts - guarantee your seat with an add-on sponsorship today!

Educational Underwriting

We do more than perform concerts. Our nationally-recognized outreach programs include:

- Youth Concerts
