THE INDESTRUCTIBLES

12 x 30' HD

This brand new series sees action sports athletes-turned-presenters Tim Warwood and Adam Gendle dropped randomly into different locations around the UK.

Their task? To take inspiration from their surroundings and, using only the props given to them, dream up and execute epic and incredible stunts. With only £1,000 for each stunt and only three days to build and test their creations, they'll need every ounce of their extreme sports experience to pull it off.
