

SOVIET MEGAMONSTERS

10 x 30' HD

Soviet Megamonsters profiles extraordinary and difficult-to-reach structures including bomb shelters, secret vaults, bridges and underground railways.

This new 10-part series follows a team of intrepid urban adventurers as they try to access locations including Cold War bomb shelters and underground tunnels. With the ten eps, two are dedicated to an attempt to explore the Chernobyl exclusion zone, with never seen before footage captured.

Using urban exploration as a medium the series gives us an exclusive and in-depth look at internal and external structures of some of the most fascinating industrial behemoths of the Soviet era.
