GET MERRY, GO MAD!

Singapore – After a long and hard day at work in the concrete jungle of Singapore's Central Business District, there wasn't any reason or place to linger about, kick back and chill out at.

The Mad Men Attic Bar was configured as the Go-To Post-Work hideout in Boat Quay. Bringing together the best of Singapore's live music talent together under one roof. An essential aspect was to create an inviting setting for all, running along a singular thread of being welcoming and simply, unpretentious.

Designed in a fun, modern industrialist manner, local graffiti collective RSCLS were invited to display street art on several walls and canvases. Add that to the nestling of the bar amongst commercial skyscrapers juxtaposed with a stunning skyline with Marina Bay Sands...and it truly becomes an ambience for everyone.

Intoxicating You Since 2010

The group has created a reputation for themselves since the launch of their first establishment of the same name in 2010 – The Merry Men Kitchen + Bar previously located at Robertson Quay. What it is that precedes them is a sincere ingenuity in formulating an unadulterated atmosphere, with good drinks, great food and awesome music to seal the deal.
