

John Hiatt

Critical Quotes

“...one of rock’s most astute singer-songwriters of the last 40 years” - LA Times

“He prowls the stage, delivering the bluesy stuff in a whiskey-burn howl, shouting the rock stuff and fronting a formidable band that can turn on a dime, from ballads to bombast.” The Tennessean

“And, just like that, after almost 40 years of recording music, John Hiatt has done it again. He has written a hit song, so relevant, so melodic, so universal, so human that it hooks deep within the listener's soul and takes you on a musical journey into the beautiful world of John Hiatt -- a world of love, heartbreak, hope and rebirth that we have come to understand, embrace and even anticipate, with each new record.” -- Huffington Post on the single "We're Alright Now" from Mystic Pinball

And for a guy who has cranked out four studio albums in five years, Hiatt is having a great run as a songwriter -- on this disc, the shaggy dog stories are funny, the blues numbers are full of righteous swagger, and he can sing about love like a guy who is still learning a few things at the age of 60 (and his voice is in fine shape, too). – All Music Guide re Mystic Pinball

“...his best since 1995.” – The New York Times
Re Dirty Jeans And Mudslide Hymns

“Hiatt knocks together a rocking, full-throttle road record that in its tone, toughness and mix of blues, r & b and country harkens back to his landmark Bring the Family.” – The Boston Herald re The Open Road
